Caution—Vladivostock approach—Submarine mines.

No. 288 (third publication).—The British Admiralty has given notice (No. 737 of 1906) that submarine mines were laid during the late war between Russia and Japan by both belligerents, extending apparently as far southward in Ussuri bay as a line joining Askold island to the Rimskago Korsakofa islands, a distance of about 40 miles. Damage has been caused to several steam-vessels approaching Vladivostock from the south-eastward by coming in contact with either fixed or drifting mines.

The Russian Government has given Notice, dated 6th June 1906, that a temporary white fixed light was established on 4th May last, in a light-house in course of construction on Cape Gamova, to assist in the navigation of the channel to Vladivostock by its western approach through Amur bay, which channel should be used until notice is issued that the eastern approach is free from danger.

Vessels, therefore, bound to Vladivostock should make cape Gamova. According to a Berlin Notice, the route thence to be followed is to pass westward of Rimskago Korsakofa, Stenin, and Tsivolko, with Popova and Kozakevicha close aboard, to the Eastern Bosporus

A fog siren would be established, probably in June, at Gamova light-house

RESOLUTION ON THE ANNUAL REPORT OF THE CIVIL VETERINARY DEPARTMENT, BENGAL, AND OF THE BENGAL VETERINARY COLLEGE FOR THE YEAR 1905-1906.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT—AGRICULTURE.

Calcutta, the 25th August 1906.

RESOLUTION—No. 1843T.—R.

READ—

The Annual Report of the Civil Veterinary Department, Bengal, and of the Bengal Veterinary College for the year 1905-06.

Read also—

(1) Director of Agriculture's letter No. 2807A., dated the 16th July 1906, submitting the report to the Board of Revenue.

(2) The Annual Report of the same Department and College for the year 1904-05 and the Government Resolution recorded thereon.

THE report which was punctually submitted deals principally with the Province of Bengal as constituted after the partition, but statistics regarding the treatment of animals and the working of the Veterinary hospitals and dispensaries in some of the transferred districts have been incorporated in the statements attached to the report.

2. Veterinary Instruction.—The total number of students on the roll of the Bengal Veterinary College at the end of the year under report was 106 as against 85 in the previous year. The number would have been larger had not some of the students left the College after admission owing to want of sufficient accommodation in the hostel attached to it. Funds have already been allotted for the construction of a new hostel, and steps are being taken to carry out the work as quickly as possible. The results of the final and the annual class examinations of the College were not so satisfactory as in the preceding year, the percentages of the successful students in each of the classes A, B and C being 57, 82 and 47, respectively, as compared with 78, 95, and 80 in the previous year. The unsatisfactory result is mainly due to the inadequacy of the teaching staff of the College throughout the year, and to some extent to the inferior educational qualifications of the students admitted. Steps have already been taken to remove both these causes; the former, by the addition of a second Imperial officer to the teaching staff, who joined his duties in February last, or only a short time before the close of the year under report; and the latter, by the issue of revised rules laying down that only students who have passed the Entrance Examination of the Calcutta University, or who have completed the High School course, or who can produce certificates of having received an education equivalent to either of these two standards should be eligible for admission to the College. The works of improvement to the College detailed in paragraph 2 of the Resolution recorded on the last year's report have been taken in hand by the Public Works Department. The Committee have held two special meetings at Belgachia to consider the adoption of sites, the laying out of the ground and the construction of the buildings.

3. Treatment of diseases.—The total number of animals treated in Veterinary hospitals and dispensaries, including the infirmary attached to the Bengal Veterinary College, during the year, in the Province, as constituted after the Partition of Bengal, was 29,312, of which 9,941 were horses, 15,252 cattle and 4,119 other animals, as against 7,929, 15,001 and 3,123 (exclusive of the figures for the transferred districts) during the preceding year. The figures show a general increase in the number of patients treated at the dispensaries and indicate the growing popularity of the scientific mode of treatment offered at those institutions. The increase was most marked in the case of the Dumraon, Burdwan, Larpur (Saran) and Palamau dispensaries.

4. There were altogether 530 cases of deaths from glanders and farcy in the Province during the year as against 430 in the previous year, excluding the figures for the transferred districts. Of these, 473 occurred in Calcutta and its neighbourhood as against 413 reported during the preceding year. Steps having been taken to enforce the Glanders and Farcy Act in the metropolis and its suburbs, it is probable that a larger number of patients suffering from the disease will be brought to notice in future than at present.

5. The total number of deaths from cattle disease was 12,374 as against 12,276 during the preceding year, excluding the figures for the transferred districts. Of these, by far the largest number of deaths (9,023) was caused by rinderpest. The districts which suffered most from the disease were Burdwan, Darjeeling, Shahabad, the Sonthal Parganas, Balasore, Ranchi, Palamau, Manbhum and Sambalpur. The Superintendent complains of the defective reports regarding cattle diseases supplied to his department by the Police officers of the Province. The Inspector-General of Police will be requested to take such steps as are possible to remedy this. The Lieutenant-Governor is glad to notice that cattle inoculation is gradually gaining ground in the Province, the number of inoculations performed during the year being 22,613 as against 13,276 during the previous year.

6. Veterinary Infirmary, Belgachia.—The total number of animals treated during the year was 2,407, of which 1,483 were in-patients and 924 out-patients. There would have been a further increase in the number but for the outbreak in the infirmary of an infectious disease called surra, which for some time prevented the admission of any animal. It is satisfactory to note that during the latter half of the year, the horse practice in the infirmary increased by 50 per cent. over that in the corresponding period of the previous year.

7. Breeding operations.—The Pusa and the Sripur Farms continued to be the only two cattle-breeding farms in the Province, managed and supervised by Government. Eight bulls of the Montgomery breed were purchased by Captain Trydell from the Amritsar Fair during the year for experiments in breeding, but, with the exception of two, they were found altogether wanting in breeding power. The failure of the experiment is ascribed to fraud committed by the vendors, who were probably aware that the bulls were useless as stud animals. Captain Trydell is of the opinion that one of the best means of improving the breed of indigenous cattle would be to pay greater attention to the feed and upkeep of the cows and heifers of the country, and to afford greater facilities for grazing. His remarks on the subject are commended to the attention of members of District and Local Boards and other persons interested. Thirteen locally-bred cows were purchased during the year for breeding operations at the Pusa Farm. The miscellaneous collection of cattle kept at the Sripur Farm was disposed of during the year, the breeding operations being confined to two classes of cattle, namely, those locally bred and those bred from the Montgomery bulls.

8. Fairs and Shows.—Ten fairs and shows were held during the year in the Province as against nine (excluding the Comilla Fair) in the preceding year, the Bagdogra Show in the district of Darjeeling having been started during the year. Unfortunately it proved a failure, owing to the unexpected inclemency of the weather at the time Out of the Imperial grant of Rs. 1,500 for distribution in prizes, only Rs. 693 were spent. The large falling off in the expenditure was chiefly due to the policy recently adopted, under which prizes are awarded only to bonâ fide cultivators, professional graziers, and breeders of cattle. The Lieutenant-Governor approves of Captain Trydell's suggestion that for the present prizes should be awarded only at the new small fairs with the object of encouraging them and enabling them to become well established.

9. Veterinary Dispensaries and Assistants.—A comparison of Table V annexed to the report under review with that annexed to the previous year's report shows that, excluding the figures for the transferred districts in each case, the total number of Veterinary hospitals and dispensaries working during the year in the Province was 21 as against 17 during the previous year. The statement in paragraph 6 of the present report, that there were altogether 19 dispensaries at work during the previous year, is apparently incorrect. The total number of Veterinary Assistants employed under Government and local bodies during the year was 63, including 14 in the new Province of Eastern Bengal and Assam, as compared with 54 during the previous year. Captain Trydell inspected all the dispensaries with the exception of that at Ranchi, and it appears from the report that, on the whole, they worked satisfactorily. The only dispensaries which have been unfavourably reported on are those at Howrah and Patna. The latter was badly reported on in the previous year. The Lieutenant-Governor hopes that the Municipality will take notice of the conduct of the Veterinary Assistant in charge. The unfavourable results achieved are reported to be due to his apathy in furthering the objects of the dispensary. It is stated that the Veterinary Assistants in charge of dispensaries generally worked satisfactorily, the most prominent among them being those in charge of the Dumraon, Burdwan, Larpur and Palamau dispensaries.

10. The Lieutenant-Governor has much pleasure in acknowledging the zeal and ability with which Captain Trydell managed the Department during the year under report, and considers that he deserves great credit for the progress which has been made in its development.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

R. W. CARLYLE,

Chief Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

RESOLUTION ON THE REPORT ON THE ADMINISTRATION OF THE POLICE DEPARTMENT IN BENGAL FOR THE YEAR 1905.

POLITICAL DEPARTMENT—POLICE.

Dated Calcutta, the 27th August 1906.

RESOLUTION—No. 1851P.—D

The Report on the Administration of the Police Department for the year 1905.

The Report for the year 1904 and the Resolution of the Government thereon.

Mr. C. J. Stevenson-Moore, I.C.S., was in charge of the office of Inspector-General of Police throughout the year, till he went on leave. He was relieved by Mr. A. V. Knyvett, C.I.E., who took over charge as Officiating Inspector-General on the 28th March 1906. Certain of the paragraphs in the report under review were written by Mr. Stevenson-Moore before proceeding on leave, but the bulk of the report has been prepared by Mr. Knyvett. The figures for the year 1905 and those given in the report for the year 1904 do not refer to the districts which have been transferred to the new Province of Eastern Bengal and Assam while they do include the Sambalpur figures.

2. Strength of the force.—In consequence of the transfer of 14 districts to the Province of Eastern Bengal and Assam, 20 appointments of Superintendents and 20 of Assistant Superintendents have been transferred to that Province with effect from the 16th October 1905. One of the reforms, recommended by the Police Commission, which was effected during the year, was the increase in the subordinate staff by 681 officers and men, of whom the majority were appointed for investigation work. There was a large deficiency in the actual strength of head-constables and constables, but this was due to the fact that the men were under instruction at the newly-created Constables' Training Schools. Sub-Inspectors were mostly recruited by nomination, but a few deserving head-constables were also promoted to this rank. As in 1904, the new appointments were distributed among the Divisions in proportion to the strength of the investigating force entertained in each, the natives of each division being regarded as having the first claim to the vacancies so allotted to it. It is satisfactory to note that this plan has given general satisfaction and that it has widened the range of selection. Mr. Slacke notices with pleasure that the last batch of recruits was superior both intellectually and physically to its predecessors and that the recruits were, in the words of the Inspector-General, a better class all round than those in previous years. Superintendents are exclusively responsible for the recruitment of local constables for their districts.

3. Training Schools.—There was practically no change in the course of instruction at the Police Training School at Bhagalpur. The Lieutenant-Governor is pleased to see that the results were the best yet obtained, only 12 cadets having failed to pass the final examination out of a total of 263 examinees. The encouragement of athletics is noteworthy. During the year under review two schools for the training of constables and head constables were started on the lines recommended by the Police Commission, one at Nathnagar, district Bhagalpur, for the training of up-countrymen, and the other at Purulia, district Manbhum, for the training of Bengalis. It is satisfactory to record that the constables from the Nathnagar Training School, who were deputed to Calcutta on duty during the visit of Their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales, were complimented on their good conduct and steady behaviour.

4. Discipline of the Force.—The percentage of officers departmentally punished was 12·9 as against 13·3 in 1904, but the percentage of men departmentally punished has risen from 6·7 to 10·1. Of the latter nearly one-third were town chaukidars, a class, which is being superseded by town constables. The Lieutenant-Governor is glad to observe that fewer members of the force were convicted under the Penal Code than last year. Whilst the number of officers punished under that Code scarcely varied, the number of men convicted was less, being ·7 per cent. of the entire force. Three cases of torture were brought against the police, one of which was declared to be true; in the second case the accused was convicted, and the third resulted in an acquittal. There were 37 charges of extortion; out of these 19 were either declared false or dismissed under section 203 of the Criminal Procedure Code, or ended in discharge, while only 13 ended in punishment, judicial or departmental.

5. Health.—The health of the force was slightly better than in the previous year and the average detention of the sick in hospital was a little less. The Lieutenant-Governor is pleased to notice that arrangements have been made to provide men serving in certain unhealthy districts with mosquito nets and also that arrangements are being made to treat constables systematically with quinine.

6. Town Police.—The Lieutenant-Governor observes with satisfaction that there has been an improvement in the work of the town chaukidars and town constables. Over 236 arrests were made by night watchmen, to whom rewards were granted in almost all cases. The increase in the number of arrests is attributed to the more direct interest taken by Superintendents in the working of the Town Police. The Town Police itself is in a state of transition. During the year 240 chaukidars were replaced by constables. Ultimately all town chaukidars will be replaced by constables, and the establishment will on the recommendation of the Police Commission, be augmented by the addition of several officers.

7. Rural Police.—The Lieutenant-Governor notices that the necessity of restricting the number of village chaukidars to actual requirements and the advisability of reducing and amalgamating charges when opportunity occurs has received attention during the year, as in place of the steady increase of previous years, there is a small falling off, namely, 50 men out of a total of 85,443 appointed under Act VI (B.C.) of 1870. In the case of chaukidars appointed under Act VI (B.C.) of 1887, there has, on the other hand, been an increase from 8,729 to 8,816, and the number of men appointed under Regulation XX of 1817 rose from 4,483 to 5,084. The Lieutenant-Governor is pleased to see that the average value of rewards paid has risen from Rs. 5-8 to Rs. 7-8, indicating a real improvement in the manner in which rewards are distributed. Mr. Wheeler was placed on deputation during the cold weather of 1905-06 to make further enquiries into the Village Panchayat system. His report is at present under the consideration of Government.

8. River Police.—It is satisfactory to note that in the 24-Parganas the system of beats established along the embankments is again reported to have proved effective in preventing crime. Mr. Bramley, who had been placed on special duty in connection with the general question of the consideration of a scheme for the establishment of a separate River Police Force, was prevented by his other duties from finishing his report last year. He has again been deputed to this Province to enable him to complete the report.

9. Supply of police to private individuals.—Last year His Honour noted the objections raised by the Inspector-General of Police to the supplying of police to private individuals, and the requisite list containing particulars of cases where the dispute was of such a petty nature that the employment of police was undesirable or where it would have been in his opinion preferable that the force should have been paid by Government is under preparation. On its receipt the Lieutenant-Governor will be prepared to pass orders. Meanwhile it may be noticed that, while there has been, during the year under review, a slight decrease in the number of the police so engaged, yet cases appear to have occurred where the supply of police to private individuals should not have been permitted.

10. Reforms.—The year under review has been remarkable for the number of reforms that have been introduced consequent on the recommendations of the Police Commission. In addition to those already mentioned in preceding paragraphs, the following may be mentioned. The pay of all subordinate ranks has been raised to the prescribed minimum sanctioned by the Government of India; new grades for Inspectors on Rs. 175 and for Sub-Inspectors on Rs. 100 have been created; the armed police formerly known as the District Police Reserve has been strengthened; European Inspectors have been appointed to 24 out of 33 districts, and in 10 districts European Sergeants have been appointed to assist them; the Provincial Criminal Investigation Department has been organized; the system of deputing plain clothes constables to Railway stations to look after the movements of bad characters has been introduced; the system of employing travelling constables in railway trains has been partially introduced; constables are exchanged for short periods with those of neighbouring thanas of adjoining districts so that they may obtain personal acquaintance with bad characters, and arrangements have been made with the Nepal Darbar for the interchange of information regarding border criminals.

11. Cognizable Crime.—The total number of cognizable offences reported during the year was 115,463 as against 127,716 in 1904. The decrease is, however, more apparent than real, being due to direct cases declared false by Magistrates being excluded from the revised statement introduced on the recommendation of the Police Commission. Excluding cases of offences against religion, public nuisances and offences under special and local laws, the percentage of police cases ending in conviction to cases decided was 77 per cent.; including the above offences, it was 89, whilst the percentage of convictions to cases enquired into by the police was 44 as compared with 31·4 of the preceding year. The percentage of convictions in Sessions cases is 75·1, which is a little higher than in the preceding year. Murshidabad and Manbhum again show the worst results. It is stated that the excessive number of acquittals in Manbhum was due in great part to defects in the supervising and investigating staff which have now been put right. The Inspector-General will be requested to enquire into the state of affairs in Murshidabad.

12. False Cases.—There has been a slight decrease in the number of cases declared false from 3,435 in 1904 to 3,191 in the year under review; the largest numbers are reported from Bihar and the 24-Parganas. The percentage of prosecutions to false cases rose from 13·2 to 15·7, but that of convictions fell from 43·5 to 42·2. Burdwan, Patna, Gaya, Shahabad, Darbhanga, Monghyr and Singhbhum show a large increase in the number of prosecutions over that of last year, indicating that the subject has received special attention in these districts. The Lieutenant-Governor hopes with the Inspector-General of Police that these prosecutions will exercise a deterrent effect. His Honour again regrets to observe that there is a still further falling off in the number of cases in which compensation has been awarded under section 250 of the Criminal Procedure Code. In this connection the Inspector-General of Police reports that Mr. Chapman, District Judge of Muzaffarpur, remarks that in his inspections he has come across several cases in which this section should have been applied. District Magistrates will be requested to bring to the notice of all Magistrates subordinate to them the remarks made in last year's report on the efficacy of this section, if wisely used, in checking the indiscriminate institution of false cases.

13. Remands.—Attention must again be drawn to the number of remands granted in the trial of police cases. The percentage of cases decided at the first two hearings has remained almost stationary, but the percentage of cases remanded more than six times has risen from 3·2 to 3·9. Various reasons have been offered for the frequency of the remands, but the Lieutenant-Governor must again reiterate his belief that a stricter supervision over criminal work by District Officers would lead to an improvement in this matter.

14. Serious Crime: Rioting.—An examination of the figures regarding serious crime shows that there has been a slight increase in the number of rioting cases, the increase being most marked in the Burdwan and Patna Divisions. There was a decrease in the Bhagalpur Division said to be due to prompt preventive action on the part of the thana officers and the Village Police in Monghyr. Judicial results were on the whole satisfactory, the percentage of cases convicted to cases disposed of being 77 as compared with 61 of the previous year. In no division except Chota Nagpur were persons imprisoned in default of furnishing security under section 106 of the Criminal Procedure Code. But in Chota Nagpur 99 persons were bound down to keep the peace under this section, of whom 37 were imprisoned in default of furnishing security; the figures for this division for the previous year were 92 and 10, respectively. These figures seem to indicate that the security demanded is higher than the people can give and not that they were unwilling to give security. The Commissioner will be requested to obtain a report on this matter.

15. Serious Crime: Murder, etc.—The number of serious crimes against the person decreased from 3,863 to 3,500. The total number of cases of murder fell from 280 in 1904 to 248 in 1905. Of such cases as well of culpable homicide, the Patna Division returns the highest numbers. There was an extraordinary and unexplained fall from 489 to 241 in the numbers of reported attempts at and abetments of suicide.

16. Serious Crime: Dacoity, etc.—Dacoity and robbery each show a slight increase. It is most marked in Manbhum, where the number of dacoity cases rose from 11 to 38. These offences, which are believed to be the work of upcountry coolies working in the coal-mines and in the extensive railway constructions, have been engaging the attention of the Criminal Investigation Department, who have, as a result of their enquiries, instituted several important gang cases. It is satisfactory to note that in Midnapore the number of dacoities has fallen from 60 to 34. This is reported to be due to the successful prosecution of certain Lodha dacoits and to the conviction of a large number of bad characters. In connection with the crime of dacoity in general, the Inspector-General of Police remarks, and the Lieutenant-Governor agrees with him, that, though the figures for the past year are somewhat disappointing in view of the convictions obtained in certain gang cases and the numerous undetected cases that have been traced, nevertheless there can be no doubt that the work of breaking up long-established gangs must bear fruit in the near future, when improved surveillance of criminals and closer inter-district and inter-provincial Police co-operation should keep dacoity down. There is an increase in the number of burglaries, to which Saran, Shahabad, the Sonthal Parganas, Monghyr and Khulna contribute the largest numbers. In Saran the increase is attributed to better reporting and to partial failure of the crops, in Shahabad to the plague, and in Khulna and the Sonthal Parganas to better reporting alone. The number of cases of cattle-theft also increased in the year under review. It is hoped that in the Sonthal Parganas, where the increase is most noticeable and where the crime seems to be due to professionals, the efforts of the Criminal Investigation Department to suppress the crime will be attended with success.

17. Bad Livelihood Cases.—There was a decrease in the number of bad livelihood cases instituted under section 110 of the Criminal Procedure Code.

18. Railway Police.—A decrease is reported in the number of railway offences. This is due to a change which has been made in the rules concerning missing goods. Such cases were all formerly investigated as thefts but are now only instituted if, after a preliminary enquiry, it appears that there are reasonable grounds for believing that a cognizable offence has been committed. Cases of theft on the Bengal lines alone decreased from 3,390 to 2,493. It is satisfactory to note that the number of cases of obstruction has decreased from 65 to 29. In 17 of these, stones were placed on the line by mischievous children. Out of eight cases sent up by the police, seven ended in convictions and the other in an acquittal.

19. Criminal Investigation Department.—An interesting description of the cases with which the Criminal Investigation Department dealt during the year under review is given in the latter half of the report. Mr. Knyvett was in charge of the Department during the year and did very valuable work, particularly in connection with the investigation of the promissory note forgery cases. After examining 64 cases of forgery, he traced the currency note forgeries dating back to 1882 and the promissory note forgeries to one and the same gang of forgers, who had for their accomplices certain Bank of Bengal employees. One Sarat Chandra Das confessed and turned King's evidence. In the end four cases were instituted, one in connection with a fraud in the French Bank in 1900, a second relating to an alleged fraud on the Bank of Bengal in 1901, a third in connection with the same Bank in the same year, and the last relating to a fraud on the Allahabad Bank in 1904 when the forgers obtained Rs. 80,000 under false pretences. Five persons received punishment varying from 5 to 10 years' imprisonment. The Calcutta Police and the Criminal Investigation Department worked hand in hand in the conduct of the investigations. It is reported that since these convictions the circulation of forged Government Currency Notes has almost ceased. The Department investigated several gang cases which led to the conviction of 113 persons under sections 400 and 401 of the Indian Penal Code; in the course of these investigations 327 dacoities and 211 burglaries were traced to the gangs. The Lieutenant-Governor is pleased to observe that the large number of enquiries dealt with, the important convictions obtained, and the success which has attended all cases without exception which were brought to trial, form a record of hard and useful work by the officers of the Department during the year. His Honour notes with satisfaction that the cordial relations between the Criminal Investigation Department and the Calcutta Police have been fully maintained. Mr. Slacke cordially acknowledges the help given by Nepalese officials in dealing with border gangs.

20. The Lieutenant Governor has much pleasure in acknowledging Mr. Stevenson-Moore's efficient administration of the Department and in thanking Mr. Knyvett for his careful and interesting report. His Honour is pleased to notice the remarks of the Inspector-General on the good work of the officers whose names are mentioned in paragraph 38 of the report. Mr. Slacke has also much pleasure in acknowledging the services rendered by Mr. Knyvett in connection with the Criminal Investigation Department, and by Mr. Dundas as Principal of the Bhagalpur Training School.

ORDER.—Ordered that copies of the Resolution be forwarded to the Inspector-General of Police, the Commissioner of Police, Calcutta, and all Commissioners of Divisions for information.

Ordered also that the Resolution be published in the Calcutta Gazette.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

M. C. McALPIN,

The mean pressure, temperature, &c., are deduced from the traces of the Barograph and from eye observations.

The maximum and minimum temperatures are obtained from self-registering thermometers. All the thermometers are verified, and the readings have been corrected to a standard constructed and verified at the Kew Observatory. They are exposed under a thatched shed open at the sides, and are suspended four feet above the ground.

The barometer readings are corrected to those of the standard, Newman's No. 86, formerly at the Surveyor-General's Office

The hygrometric elements are obtained from Tables III, IV, and V of the official tables computed in the Meteorological Office, and based on Regnault's modifications of August's formula.

The directions and the movement of the wind are taken from the trace of a Beckley's anemograph.

The mouth of the rain-gauge is one foot above the ground. The rainfall reported on any day is for 24 hours preceding 8 A.M. of that day.

RESOLUTION REVIEWING THE REPORTS ON THE WORKING OF THE PURI LODGING-HOUSE ACT DURING 1905-06.

MUNICIPAL DEPARTMENT—SANITATION.

Darjeeling, the 29th August 1906.

RESOLUTION No. 62T.—S.

READ—

The Reports from the Commissioners of Divisions on the working of the Puri Lodging-House Act during the year 1905-06, in the various places to which it has been extended.

The Reports on the working of the Lodging-House Act are due to Government on the 1st June, but the only report received by that date was from the Burdwan Division, while the report from the Presidency Division was not received till the 9th July. The Lieutenant-Governor must again insist on the punctual submission of these reports in future.

2. The Act was not extended to any new area during the year, and no amendment or alteration was made in the rules. The Chittagong Division having been transferred to the Province of Eastern Bengal and Assam, the figures for Sitakund have been excluded from the returns. Proposals for the amendment of the Act have lately been submitted by the Commissioner of Orissa and are at present under the consideration of Government.

There was a further decrease in the number of licensed lodging-houses, which has fallen from 3,013 in 1902-03 to 1,743 in 1905-06, although the number of persons for whom accommodation was provided has not decreased in proportion. In Puri town, there was an increase of 20 in the number of houses licensed, but as greater strictness was observed in granting licenses as many as 112 were suspended during the year, the licensees being either reluctant to carry out the improvements suggested or taking an unreasonably long time to do so. The attendance during the Rath Jatra and Dol Jatra festivals was smaller than in the previous year, only 60,000 pilgrims visiting the town as compared with 80,000 in 1904-05. The decrease as ascribed to the fact that the year was an inauspicious one for pilgrimage.

3. The income of the funds during the year, excluding the opening balance, was Rs. 80,740 as against Rs. 77,644 of the preceding year; the expenditure was Rs. 82,456 as compared with Rs. 99,541 in 1904-05, the closing balance being reduced from Rs. 30,957 to Rs. 29,227. The decrease in expenditure is most noticeable in the Orissa Division, being only Rs. 43,572 as against Rs. 62,154 in 1904-05. This is mainly due to the fact that the greater part of the work on the Bogla rest-house at Puri was done during 1904-05, and the expenditure in that year was consequently greater than usual. There was also a large decrease in expenditure in the Bhagalpur Division, where there was a fall of Rs. 8,913 under the head "Miscellaneous." The expenditure during the preceding year was of a special nature on account of the cost of acquiring camping-grounds.

4. Five hundred and twenty-three prosecutions were instituted under the Act during the year, in which 447 persons were convicted, the total fines imposed amounting to Rs. 9,194-8. The fines imposed in individual cases varied in the different districts in a marked degree. In Gaya, for instance, 242 persons were convicted, and the total amount of fines imposed was Rs. 3,883; while in Puri 147 persons were convicted and the amount of fines imposed was Rs. 4,981. In the case of Gaya the variation as compared with last year is still more remarkable. In 1904-05 the number of convictions was 127 as against 242 in 1905-06, and the total amount of fines imposed Rs. 4,962 as against Rs. 3,883.

5. The Lieutenant-Governor is glad to notice that, on the whole, the health of the pilgrims was good throughout the year. There were, however, serious outbreaks of cholera in Gaya during September and October 1905, while in Puri the total number of deaths rose from 143 to 443 in the year under report, the principal causes being cholera, fever, diarrhœa and dysentery. During the festivals of the Rath Jatra and the Dol Jatra only 17 cases of cholera occurred amongst the pilgrims. In Puri the attention of the Health Officer was specially directed to the improvement of the wells which form the principal source of water-supply for the pilgrims, and most of the wells were painted inside with cement to prevent percolation. The question of the improvement of the sanitation of Puri is still under the consideration of Government. A drainage scheme has been drawn up and approved at an estimated cost of Rs. 1,70,000, and the detailed plans and estimates are now under preparation. A definite scheme for the improvememt of the water-supply of the town is also being prepared and will shortly be submitted for the approval of Government.

6. The Act has worked well during the year, and the thanks of the Lieutenant-Governor are due to the local officers responsible for its administration.

ORDER.—Ordered that a copy of the Resolution be submitted to the Government of India in the Home Department, and that copies be forwarded to the Commissioners of the Burdwan, Presidency, Patna, Bhagalpur and Orissa Divisions, for information.

Ordered also that a copy of the Resolution be communicated to the Sanitary Commissioner and to the Sanitary Board, Bengal, for information, and that it be published in the Calcutta Gazette for general information.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

H. J. McINTOSH,
Offg. Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

Poor-houses have been opened at different centres with District Board funds for feeding several thousand destitute persons. Scarcity is also apprehended in parts of Jessore, Murshidabad, Saran and the 24-Parganas on account of the high prices of food-grains. Prospects of the aman paddy are on the whole fair except in Darbhanga. Cattle-disease is reported from thirteen districts. Water-supply is sufficient. Fodder is insufficient in Murshidabad and Darbhanga. The price of common rice has risen in twenty-two districts and fallen in five. It continues to be very high in most districts.

The mean pressure, temperature, &c., are deduced from the traces of the Barograph and from eye observations.

The maximum and minimum temperatures are obtained from self-registering thermometers. All the thermometers are verified, and the readings have been corrected to a standard constructed and verified at the Kew Observatory. They are exposed under a thatched shed open at the sides, and are suspended four feet above the ground.

The barometer readings are corrected to those of the standard, Newman's No. 86, formerly at the Surveyor-General's Office

The hygrometric elements are obtained from Tables III, IV, and V of the official tables computed in the Meteorological Office, and based on Regnault's modifications of August's formula.

The directions and the movement of the wind are taken from the trace of a Beckley's anemograph.

The mouth of the rain-gauge is one foot above the ground. The rainfall reported on any day is for 24 hours preceding 8 A.M. of that day.

No. 2831-42.

(Extract (paras. 1 and 2) from the Proceedings of the Government of India in the Home Department (Public), under date Calcutta, the 8th December, 1899)

RESOLUTION.

The Secretary of State for India has brought to the notice of the Government of India that it not infrequently happens that natives of India, students or others, who have proceeded to England, desire to obtain passports to enable them to travel to foreign countries in which the possession of a passport is necessary or desirable, and that difficulty often arises from want of evidence to show that the applicant is a British subject, and therefore entitled to a passport. Appeals for assistance are also frequently addressed to His Lordship by destitute Indians who desire to return to their country and by students who, owing to embarrassed circumstances, are unable to complete their course of education.

2. In order to enable the Secretary of State to deal with such cases satisfactorily, the Governor-General in Council has decided that it is necessary to press upon Indian students and others visiting England the desirability of providing themselves, before their departure from India, with an authoritative certificate of identity, in the form appended to this Resolution, signed by the head of the district (in a Presidency Town, the Commissioner of Police), in the case of residents of British India and by the Political Officer in that of residents of Native States. For a student the certificate should be signed by the head of his last school or college and countersigned by the District Officer (in a Presidency Town, the Commissioner of Police) or Political Officer, as the case may be.

REPORT ON THE STATE OF THE SALT MARKET FOR THE FIRST QUARTER OF 1906-1907.

No. 5529B., dated Calcutta, the 25th August 1906.

From—PANDIT RAMA BALLABHA MISRA, M.A., Offg. Secretary to the Board of Revenue, L. P.,

To—The Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Financial Department.

I AM directed to submit the following report on the state of the salt market for the first quarter of the year 1906-1907, comprising the months of April, May and June 1906.

Member in charge :
THE HON'BLE MR. W. C. MACPHERSON, C.S.I.

2. The quantity of salt of every description cleared during the quarter amounted to 33,10,896 maunds, as compared with 23,66,672 maunds in the previous quarter, and 29,25,770 maunds in the corresponding quarter of the previous year. The net amount of duty levied thereon was Rs. 45,57,288, as against Rs. 32,87,095 in the previous quarter, and Rs. 40,89,115 in the corresponding quarter of the previous year.*

* The figures cited for the previous year in paragraphs 2 to 4 of this report do not include figures for the Eastern Bengal Ists which were transferred on 16th October 1905 to the Province of Eastern Bengal and Assam.

3. The subjoined Table I shows in detail the importations into the port of Calcutta and the total clearances of sea-imported salt during the quarter, as compared with the figures of the corresponding quarters of the two previous years :—

5. The different pass-stations having ceased to exist with the abolition of the salt rawana system in Bengal, with effect from the 1st April 1906, the figures hitherto published in Table III of this report showing the despatches of salt from Calcutta during the quarter of report could not be obtained from the sources from which they have been hitherto received and they are not yet available in the office of the Director-General of Commercial Intelligence. The figures relating to the despatches of April and May 1906 were published in the Calcutta Gazettes of 11th July and 8th August 1906. The figures will be published as usual in the Calcutta Gazette by the Director-General of Commercial Intelligence when they are available.

6. The quantity of salt despatched during the quarter by the East Indian Railway to stations beyond Buxar amounted to 405 maunds, as against nil in the previous quarter and 405 maunds in the corresponding quarter of the previous year.

7. The quantity of saltpetre salt excised in the refineries of the Lower Provinces during the quarter amounted to 4,955 maunds, as compared with 6,679 maunds in the previous quarter and 5,458 maunds in the corresponding quarter of the previous year.

8. The shipments of Liverpool salt during the quarter for the port of Calcutta, according to the published market reports, amounted to 49,835 tons. It is reported that the vessel Schwarzenfels is afloat for Calcutta with an approximate quantity of 2,000 tons of salt from Hamburg.

9. Table IV shows the average wholesale prices per 100 maunds of Liverpool and other descriptions of salt during each fortnight of the quarter :—

REPORT ON THE ADMINISTRATION OF THE SALT DEPARTMENT IN BENGAL, DURING THE YEAR 1905-06.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 300A.T.-S.R.—The 7th September 1906.—The following extracts from the Report of the Commissioner of Excise and Salt, Bengal, on the Administration of the Salt Department in the Province during the year 1905-06 and from the letter of the Board of Revenue reviewing the report, are published for general information.

H. J. McINTOSH,
Offg. Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

No. 5054B., dated Calcutta, the 7th August 1906.

From—PANDIT RAMA BALLABHA MISRA, M.A., Offg. Secretary to the Board of Revenue, L. P.,

To—The Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Financial Department.

I AM directed to submit the accompanying Report received from the Commissioner of Salt, Bengal, on the Administration of the Salt Department during the year 1905-06.

THE HON'BLE MR. W. C. MACPHERSON, C.S.I.

2. The most important administrative event of the year was the abolition of the salt rawana system in Bengal, which was approved by the Government of India in their letter No. 5108Exc., dated the 12th September 1905, on the recommendation of the local authorities but which did not come into effect till the 1st April 1906. The abolition of this system of passes en route was sanctioned on the ground that without counterbalancing advantages it hampered trade, interfered with distribution of salt and restricted consumption by raising prices. The loss of revenue to Government, which was derived from fees and stamps on applications for rawanas, amounting to about Rs. 31,000 a year, need not be regretted.

3. Another important feature of the year's administration was the reorganization of the department with the object of bringing it under the close control of the District Officers and which included a redistribution of charges and a material strengthening of the preventive establishment. The immediate result was the introduction of preventive operations in the district of Noakhali from the beginning of the cold weather, 1905. In this district as well as in Midnapore, 24-Parganas and Khulna Collectors were vested with the powers of an Assistant Commissioner under section 30 of the Indian Salt Act, XII of 1882. The jurisdiction of the departmental Assistant Commssioner was consequently restricted to Howrah and the 24-Parganas, and in this latter district he exercises his powers concurrently with the Collector.

4. In addition to the withdrawal by Government of the concession of a wastage allowance of 1 per cent. on salt transhipped at Calcutta, which is mentioned by the Commissioner, it may also be noted that the maximum allowance on account of wastage on bonded salt in inland warehouses in Bengal was fixed at 2 per cent. in the case of panga or boiled salt and at 1 per cent. for all other kinds of salt, with effect from the 1st January 1906, under Government Notification No. 5291T.—S. R., dated the 14th October 1905.

5. The quantities of salt imported by sea from different countries into Bengal during the year amounted to 10,818,934 maunds against 11,465,094 maunds in the previous year, showing a decrease of 5·6 per cent.; on the other hand, 367,695 maunds of salt were imported from Port Said during the year against nil in the last two years. The importation of Madras salt showed a further decrease of about 50 per cent. which is ascribed to want of freight.

The transactions in salt at the Sulkea and Kidderpore Dock golas were the highest on record, but no difficulty was experienced in providing bonding space as the salt landed in the golas was quickly removed to meet the demand for consumption. The Board are now considering the arrangements to be made in consequence of the necessity which has arisen for removal of the salt golas from the Kidderpore Docks.

6. A satisfactory increase in consumption of salt in all the saliferous districts of Bengal which were within the Salt Law Limits except Noakhali (in which district there were adverse influences of a temporary nature), is attributed to the vigilance of the salt preventive force in detecting and suppressing illicit manufacture and to the cheapness of licit salt brought about by a reduction in salt duty.

7. The average wholesale price (exclusive of duty) of 100 maunds of Liverpool salt purchased from the ship's side in the port of Calcutta rose from Rs. 48-10-2 to Rs. 50-11-9. Prices, which in 1904-05, varied from Rs. 46-6 6 to Rs. 51-5-4, fluctuated in the year under report (apparently on account of adverse freight conditions) from Rs. 45-9-7 to Rs. 67-5. In the interior the price of salt was in all districts lower than in the previous year. During the year the average wholesale selling prices per maund of salt, inclusive of duty, ranged from Rs. 3-0-5 to Rs. 2-6-2 in the several divisions of the province, and the average wholesale price for the whole province was Rs. 2-11-4 per maund against Rs. 3-1-10 in 1904-05, Rs. 3-3-1 in 1903-04, and Rs. 3-10-4 in 1902-03. The Board have compiled figures with regard to retail prices of salt in this Province during the last four years which shew that the average number of seers obtained for a rupee was in 1902—10·69, in 1903—11·93, in 1904—12·55 and in 1905—14·28. The reductions in the duty from Rs. 2-8 to Rs. 2 and from Rs. 2 to Re. 1-8 made in the years 1903 and 1905 have very considerably benefited all classes of people in the province, including the poorest. It was reported last year that the very petty purchasers have not obtained relief commensurate with the decrease in the duty. Nevertheless the lessening in the duty has to a very appreciable but varying extent assisted the poorest, since those who obtain their supplies from provision dealers by doles receive larger quantities than before, and in some places the fall has had the result of enabling them to purchase salt by weight.

8. The large decrease in the number of offences against the salt laws is no doubt chiefly accounted for by the cheapness of licit salt. Better patrolling may also have contributed to this result; but the decrease of illicit operations rendered it unnecessary to strengthen the preventive force to the extent sanctioned.

9. The financial results of the year, as compared with those in 1904-05 show a decrease of nearly Rs. 70 lakhs, or 31·2 per cent., in the receipts and of Rs. 1,12,005, or 22·7, in the charges. The decrease in receipts is accounted for chiefly by the reduction of duty; but there was also a considerable falling off in rents paid by the salt bonders owing to importations being lower than in the previous year as noticed above.

No. 557S., dated Calcutta, the 9th July 1906.

From—E. A. GEAKE, Esq., I.C.S., Commissioner of Excise and Salt, Bengal,
To—The Secretary to the Board of Revenue, L. P.

I HAVE the honour to submit the following consolidated Report on the Administration of the Salt Department in Bengal for the year 1905-06.

PRELIMINARY.

Abolition of rawana system and partition of Bengal.

3. The rawana system was abolished with effect from the 1st April 1906 under Government Notification No. 390S.R., dated the 14th March 1906. The control of salt preventive operations in the two districts of Noakhali and Chittagong which were transferred to the Province of Eastern Bengal and Assam on the partition, continued to be exercised under the orders of the Government of Bengal with the concurrence of the Government of Eastern Bengal and Assam, as it was not considered desirable to exclude these two districts from the operations of the Department so long as the present experimental stage of salt administration continued.

Vesting of Forest Officers with the powers of a Salt Officer under sections 16 and 17 of the Indian Salt Act.

8. Forest Officers in Khulna from the Deputy Conservator to Forest guards were vested with the powers of a Salt Revenue Officer under sections 16 and 17 of the Indian Salt Act, XII of 1882, for the detection and prevention of salt crime in the reserved forests of that district by Bengal Government Notification No. 477S.R., dated the 28th March 1906.

STOCKS, IMPORTS AND CLEARANCES.

10. At the commencement of the year the stocks of salt in all golas, both public and private, were over one lakh of maunds more than on the 1st April 1904, but the quantity of salt imported during the year under report showed a decline of nearly 6½ lakhs of maunds. The clearances were larger than in the previous year by more than 1¼ lakh. After allowing for wastage, the closing balance stood at 16,63,665 maunds. In addition to this, there were at the close of the year 3,43,950 maunds of salt lying afloat in the port of Calcutta against 3,63,662 maunds at the end of 1904-05.

During the year under report the percentage on the total importations of salt bonded in the Sulkea and Kidderpore Dock golas amounted to 71 against 70 in the previous year. There was a decrease, both in the quantity imported and bonded, due to scarcity of freight.

Imports.

11. The quantities of salt imported by sea from different countries into Bengal during the year 1905-06 as compared with the results of 1904-05 show a decrease of 5·6 per cent. in importations into Calcutta during the year for which the United Kingdom, Hamburg and Bremen, Ras Rawaya and Madras were chiefly responsible. The imports from the United Kingdom fell short by nearly 12 lakhs of maunds and from Hamburg and Bremen by over 6 lakhs. During the year Port Said showed an importation of over 3 lakhs of maunds after an entire cessation of imports in the two preceding years. There was an increase from other foreign ports, Spain, Salif, Aden and Bombay. Spanish salt is struggling to find a market. Madras records a further decline of about 50 per cent. due probably to want of freight.

Sales of imported salt from ship-board and bond.

12. In Calcutta the sales from importing vessels direct decreased by 16·8 per cent., while there was an increase in the sales from bond by 3·9 per cent. Of the vessels carrying salt into Calcutta during the year, 95 per cent. were steamers.

Transactions in the Sulkea and Kidderpore Dock golas.

13. The total salt transactions at the Sulke and Kidderpore golas for the past five years are shown below:—

	Mnds.
1901-02	1,49,52,131
1902-03	1,54,83,932
1903-04	1,50,05,754
1904-05	1,62,70,908
1905-06	1,67,67,724

The quantity of salt handled at Sulkea was 99,29,028 maunds against 1,06,35,902 maunds in the preceding year and at Kidderpore 68,38,693 maunds against 56,35,006 maunds.

The Collector of Customs, Calcutta, reports that the transaction during the year was the highest on record, and that no difficulty was experienced in providing bonding space, as the salt landed in the golas did not remain long in store. The demand for consumption speedily cleared space for further consignments.

The Kidderpore salt golas received 40 per cent. of the whole quantity bonded, as compared with 33 per cent. in the preceding year. As the Port Commissioners are likely, in the near future, to require the site at present occupied by the Kidderpore golas, the selection of a new site will demand attention. The landing of salt at Sulkea continues unsatisfactory, and, combined with labour difficulties, is the cause of some anxiety. It is expected, however, that with the completion of the two new golas now under construction and the increased railway sidings and extra pontoons now sanctioned, these difficulties will be much reduced.

Inland bonded warehouses.

15. There are only two warehouses in the Province since the transfer of those in Eastern Bengal to the new Province. Both are located at Chandbali and owned by Messrs. Turner, Morrison & Co. The quantity of salt despatched to the two warehouses as well as to those transferred to the new Province amounted to 12,90,791 maunds (9,23,310 maunds from shipboard and 3,67,481 maunds from the golas in Calcutta) as compared with 13,18,024 (9,86,762 maunds from shipboard and 3,31,262 maunds from the golas) in 1904-05, a decrease of 2 per cent.

Imports of Madras salt into Orissa by land.

18. The quantity of Madras karkatch and refined salt imported into Orissa by land during the year was 7,65,252 maunds against 10,15,292 in the previous year, showing a decrease of 24·6 per cent. The decrease was due to low stocks in the factories of the Ganjam district owing to the complete failure of manufacture last season. The Oriental Salt Company, Limited, did not import into Cuttack any Madras salt in consequence and had to close their depôts for such salt in the district of Balasore from the 1st July 1905.

Imports of Bombay salt in the Tributary Mahals of Orissa.

19. The following figures show the consumption of Bombay salt in the Tributary States during the last four years. This salt finds its way into the States by the Bengal-Nagpur Railway. There was an increase of 34,617 maunds in consumption during the year, as compared with the preceding year, and this compensated to some extent for the decreased consumption of Madras salt in the States.

CONSUMPTION AND PRICES.

Consumption in Bengal.

20. The total quantity of salt consumed in the Province during the year under report was 94,93,618 maunds. This is exclusive of 5,80,292 maunds, the net export by land, but inclusive of 16,262 maunds educed from saltpetre. Of the total quantity, the saliferous tracts of this province took 15,92,503 maunds, or 16·8 per cent., and the rest of the province 79,01,115 maunds, or 83·2 per cent. The resulting rate of consumption per head in the saliferous tracts was 6 seers or 12·3 lbs. and in the rest of the province 7 seers 2 chitaks or 14·6 lbs.

The rates of consumption per head of population in the Bombay and Madras Presidencies during 1904-05 were 11·68 lbs. and 17·1 lbs., respectively.

Consumption of salt within the Salt Law limits.

21. During the year under report the consumption per head within the Salt Law area showed an increase in all the districts except Noakhali where the decrease was due to partial failure of rice crops and to larger migration of the people to Akyab in search of work. The increase in the other districts was due to the vigilance of the salt preventive force in detecting and suppressing illicit manufacture and to the cheapness of licit salt brought about by a reduction in salt duty.

Consumption of salt in the town of Calcutta.

23. The quantity of salt consumed in the town of Calcutta during the year 1904-05 and 1905-06 amounted to 1,52,281 maunds and 1,57,524 maunds, respectively, giving an average annual consumption of 7 seers and 7 seers 3 chitaks or 14·4 and 14·8 pounds approximately per head of population calculated on the census figures of 1901 plus the usual allowance for annual increase.

Prices of salt in Bengal generally.

24. The further reduction in the rate of duty from Rs. 2 to Re. 1-8 a maund from the 22nd March 1905, brought about a fall in retail prices and benefited all classes of people in the province.

Exclusive of duty, the average wholesale price of Liverpool salt per hundred maunds as sold from the ship's side in the port of Calcutta, amounted to Rs. 50-11-9 during the year, as compared with Rs. 48-10-2 in 1904-05. Prices which in 1904-05 varied from Rs. 46-6-6 to Rs. 51-5-4, fluctuated in the year under report from Rs. 45-9-7 to Rs. 67-5.

PREVENTIVE MEASURES.

Attachments, releases and confiscations in the saliferous districts including Orissa.

26 Illicit salt was attached, released and confiscated in 177, 1 and 140 cases against 586, 1 and 642 cases in the previous year to the extent of 105 maunds 30 seers and 69 maunds against 56 maunds 10 seers and 69 maunds during the year 1904-05. There was thus an increase of 49 maunds, or 87·5 per cent., in the quantity attached owing to a large quantity of contraband salt having been seized in the district of Khulna, where the preventive force was strengthened during the year.

Number of seizures and unsuccessful house-searches.

27. There was only one case of unsuccessful house-search in the 24-Parganas. The number of seizures and unsuccessful house-searches was 152 and 1 against 563 and 8 in the previous year, the percentage of such searches to seizures being ·66 against 1·4 in the previous year.

Number of cases instituted under Acts VII (B.C.) of 1864 and XII of 1882.

28. There were 145 prosecutions against 406† in the previous year. Out of 162 persons arrested and brought to trial, 117 were convicted, the percentage of convictions being 72·2. The number of cases under section 9 of Act XII of 1882 was 81 against 331 in the previous year. The decrease is shared by the districts of Balasore, the 24-Parganas, Midnapore, Howrah and Chittagong and is attributable to the systematic patrolling of Salt officers and the cheapening of licit salt. The increase in Puri is due to a recrudescence of crime brought about by a partial failure of crops. In Khulna it is due to the strengthening of the preventive force and the extension of the area of their operations, and in Noakhali to the opening of salt preventive operations from October 1905. The increase in Cuttack is very small, and calls for no remarks. No cases were reported by the police under Act XII of 1882, nor were any cases lost owing to the failure of the Special Police head-constables to attend house searches. Thirty-three opium cases were detected by Salt officers as against 20 in the previous year. In the 24-Parganas, Howrah, Midnapore and Chittagong, information of Excise cases was given by Salt officers to Excise officers, and in the 24-Parganas and Chittagong general assistance was rendered to the Excise Department in detection work.

Fines, forfeitures and rewards.

29. The total amount of fines and forfeitures realised and the amount disbursed as rewards were Rs. 1,191 and Rs 807, respectively against Rs. 3,705† and Rs. 3,987† in the previous year. The decrease is explained by the smaller number of detections.

* Revised figures and exclusive of those for Backergunge.

† Exclusive of the figures for Backergunge.

FINANCIAL RESULTS.

Receipts and charges.

31. The results of the year as compared with those in 1904-05, show a decrease of Rs. 69,97,445, or 31·2 per cent., in the receipts, and of Rs. 1,12,005, or 22·7, in the charges, yielding a net revenue of Rs. 1,49,95,394, which is less than that of the previous year by Rs. 68,85,440, or 31·4 per cent. It is to be noted that the charges do not include a proportionate share of the cost of the Customs Preventive Service which is largely employed in safeguarding the salt revenue.

Charges.

32. The charges fell from Rs. 4,91,496 in 1904-05 to Rs. 3,79,491 in 1905-06, the decrease amounting to Rs. 1,12,005, or 22·7 per cent.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Trade in saltpetre in Bengal.

34. The quantity of salt educed in the manufacture of saltpetre during the year and removed on payment of duty from all the refineries in the province was 16,262 maunds against 15,594 maunds in the previous year, showing an increase of 668 maunds. The increase was due to ordinary fluctuations in the trade.

Saltpetre refineries in Calcutta and its environs.

35. There were two licensed saltpetre refineries at Soorah and Kakurgachi against three in the previous year, the one at Ultadingi having been closed. At Soorah alone salt is educed, but it is not sold, as the licensee prefers to destroy the bye-product.

Work done in the Calcutta refineries.

36. The quantity of refined saltpetre produced in the two refineries was 16,438 maunds against 25,953 maunds, the quantity of salt educed was 1,887 maunds against 2,518 maunds and the quantity of sitta or impure salt left in course of refinement was 1,954 maunds against 2,130 maunds in the previous year. The decrease is due to the general decline in the trade which leads year after year to the closure of refineries. The receipts from license fees fell from Rs. 150 to Rs. 100 owing to the closure of the refinery at Ultadingi. No educed salt was sold, and consequently there was no receipt from duty during the year.

I AM directed to submit the following report on the Administration of the Road and Public Works Cesses for the year 1905-1906.

THE HON'BLE MR. F. A. SLACKE, I.C.S.

* * * * * * *

3. Both cesses were levied at the maximum rate of one anna in the rupee in the 30 districts of the Province, as now constituted, in which the Cess Act, IX (B.C.) of 1880, is in force. In the Sonthal Parganas the provisions of the Cess Act were extended by Government Notification No. 480R.P., dated the 25th October 1905, to all tracts of the district to which they were not extended by Notifications No. 4782R.P., dated the 21st November 1903, No. 543T.F., dated the 19th May 1904, and No. 998R.P., dated the 14th February 1905. The levy of cesses in this district began for the first time from the beginning of the year, and then only in a few estates of which the settlement had been completed. The Act is not in force in Angul and the Khondmals or in Sambalpur. The current demand of land revenue of the 30 districts was Rs. 2,82,99,982 and the valuation, or gross rental, amounted to Rs. 12,64,57,129.

Rate, land-revenue demand and gross rental

4. * * In the subjoined table the demands, collections, balances and remissions of the year are compared with the two preceding years (excluding the statistics of the districts transferred to the Government of Eastern Bengal and Assam):—

Demands, collections, balances and remissions.

Year.	Demand.			Collections	Percentage of total collections on current demand.	Balance.	Percentage of the balance on the total demand.	Remissions.
	Current.	Arrear.	Total.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.		Rs.		Rs.
1903-1904 .	69,09,239	13,45,340	82,54,579	68,35,678	98·9	14,22,112	17 2	69,621

1905-1906 ...	69,55,856	13,50,895	83,06,751	70,59,858	101·4	12,66,104	15·2	69,916

The increase of Rs. 6,045 in the current demand as compared with the previous year was due to revaluations. There was an increase in collections by more than half a lakh, and the percentage of collections on the current demand rose from 100·8 to 101·4. The balances were reduced by Rs. 87,978, and the percentage of the balance on the total demand from 16·1 to 15·2. The remissions and reductions which amounted to Rs. 69,916 as against Rs. 57,183 in 1904-05 were chiefly in the districts of Burdwan, Gaya, Manbhum, Muzaffarpur, Murshidabad, Patna, Hazaribagh and Singhbhum, and call for no special remarks.

5. The districts are grouped in two classes, (i) those in which the collections attained the prescribed standard of 100 per cent. or more on the current demand, and (ii) those in which the collections were short of that standard. The marginally-noted districts fall under class (i), and in the first eight districts the percentage of collections was more than 105.

Working of the certificate procedure.

7. The total number of certificates filed for the realization of cess arrears was 85,919 as against 81,028 in the previous year. The increase was shared by the Burdwan, Bhagalpur, and Orissa Divisions, while there was a decrease in the Presidency, Patna, and Chota Nagpur Divisions. The increase in Burdwan, Midnapore, Hooghly, Murshidabad, Khulna, and Purnea is ascribed to the issue of certificates for the recovery of accumulated petty arrears of cesses to avoid limitation. The system of sending draft certificates for cesses from Hooghly direct to Howrah was adopted during the year under report under the orders of the Board conveyed in their letter No. 3471A., dated the 29th May 1905. The change in system is reported to have worked well. In Patna the increase was due to the fact that certificates for the kist of January 1905 were mostly instituted in April 1905, while those for the kist of January 1906 were practically all instituted before the 31st March 1906. The increase in Saran was due to a large number of estates having defaulted during the first kist of the year, which necessitated the issue of numerous certificates. In Monghyr it was chiefly due to an increase in the arrear demand, particularly on account of revenue-free estates, petty arrears of which were allowed to accumulate and were brought under certificate in the year under report. The abnormal increase in Cuttack, where the institutions rose from 2,037 in 1904-1905 to 5,909, was due partly to the filing of certificates for the realization of accumulated petty arrears, and partly to the fact that owing to the incompleteness of Land Registration Register B, which has now been completed, certificates had to be sparingly issued before. No certificates were filed in Darjeeling. In the Sonthal Parganas cesses were levied for the first time and 63 certificates were filed for their realization. The disposals exceeded the institutions in the Presidency and Chota Nagpur Divisions.

Objections against certificates.

8. The total number of objections filed and disposed of was 6,052 and 5,890 as against 5,538 and 5,458, respectively, in the previous year. The largest number of objections disposed of occurred in the districts of Shahabad (1,235), Saran (1,011), Burdwan (763), and Gaya (595). In 532 cases as against 609 of 1904-1905, the certificates objected to were cancelled for such reasons as the death or desertion of judgment-debtors, exemption of lands lying within municipal limits, double assessments, non-registration of names of holders of rent-free lands, errors in the Land Registration Registers, and wrong entries in the ledgers. The number of cases in which reductions were made in the amount brought under certificate declined from 167 in 1904-1905 to 144.

Stage of procedure at which demands were satisfied.

9. In 22,110 cases as against 20,336 in 1904-1905 arrears were recovered on the mere issue of notices, in 33,930 as against 33,327 on the issue of notices for sale of defaulters' moveable properties, and in 14,122 as against 15,246 on the issue of notices for the sale of the defaulters' immoveable properties. Of the total number of sales (2,535 as against 2,417 in 1904-1905), 927 as against 899 in 1904-1905 were set aside under sections 20 and 21 of the Public Demands Recovery Act, I (B.C.) of 1895, as amended by Act I (B.C.) of 1897. The largest number of sales set aside was in the districts of Patna (213), Darbhanga (160), Saran (90), Shahabad (86), Monghyr (79), Muzaffarpur (56), Gaya (54), and Jessore (54).

Valuations and re-valuations.

10. * * * There were valuations, and re-valuations, partial or complete, in 20 out of the 30 districts to which the Act applies.

11. During the year general re-valuations were completed in the districts of Hooghly, Champaran, and Muzaffarpur. The operations have resulted in an increase over the former cess demand of Rs. 15,375, or 6·8 per cent. in Hooghly, and Rs. 11,543, or 6·6 per cent. in Champaran. In Muzaffarpur there was a decrease of Rs. 2,19,988 in the valuation and of Rs. 13,795 in the cess demand, as compared with the last re-valuation completed in 1891. This result was anticipated and was due to the preparation of a record-of-rights under the Bengal Tenancy Act. At previous valuations the landlords had filed returns showing rents higher than those which were legally payable.

* * * * *

14. * * The road cess was first assessed under Act X (B.C.) of 1871 in 27 districts of the Province, as now constituted, at a gross rental or valuation of Rs. 8,90,36,643. Subsequently the districts of Khulna and Palamau were created, and the Cess Act, IX (B.C.) of 1880, was extended to them and to parganas Dhalbhum and Porahat in Singhbhum. In the Sonthal Parganas the cess was levied for the first time from the beginning of the year under report in a few estates of which the settlement had been completed. The gross rental shows an increase of Rs. 3,74,20,486 over the original valuation and of Rs. 6,32,204 over that of the preceding year. The increase as compared with the previous year was due to valuations and re-valuations.

Gross rental.

PRELIMINARY FORECAST OF THE SUGARCANE CROP OF BENGAL, 1906.

THE following is published for general information.

R. W. CARLYLE,
Chief Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

The 10th September 1906.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, BENGAL.

PRELIMINARY FORECAST OF THE SUGARCANE CROP OF BENGAL, 1906.

[On an average of the five years ending 1904-1905, the area under sugarcane crop in the territory to which this forecast relates has represented some 19 02 per cent. of the total area under this crop in British India.]

Explanatory.—The present forecast relates to 33 districts, including Sambalpur and excluding the 14 districts recently transferred to the new Province of Eastern Bengal and Assam.

2. Character of the season.—Sugarcane is grown chiefly in Bihar. In the districts north of the Ganges it is grown without irrigation, while in those on the south of the river as also in other parts of the Province frequent irrigation is generally necessary in the hot months. During the present year the rainfall was very favourable early in the season, and planting was done at the normal time. In April and May the fall was below the normal; but, on the whole, the season up to the present has not been unfavourable to the crop.

3. Area planted.—The normal area under sugarcane in this Province as now constituted is 429,900 acres, or in round numbers 430,000 acres. The actual area planted this year is estimated at 428,000 acres against 420,600 acres planted last year.

4. Outturn.—The Provincial outturn, according to the district returns, is expected to be 92 per cent. of a normal crop, or the same as last year. Twenty districts, including Saran, Shahabad, Patna, and Bhagalpur, estimate the crop to be better than, or equal to, that of last year, while the remaining thirteen districts estimate it as worse. Compared with a normal crop ten districts estimate an outturn of 100 per cent., or over, ten between 90 to 99 per cent., six between 80 to 89 per cent., six between 70 to 79 per cent., and only one, viz., Nadia, estimates an outturn of 51 per cent.

5. Other sources of gur.—The total quantity of gur from the juice of the date-palm is expected to be approximately 1,457,335 cwts., and that from the palmyra palm 4,643 cwts. Jessore is the chief district in which gur is made from the date-palm, but a good deal is also made in Khulna, Nadia, and the 24-Parganas.

The season has been generally favourable up to date, and a normal outturn is expected. The area under sugarcane in the Sadar, Bhabua and Sasaram subdivisions is said to have increased considerably. The approximate normal area probably ought to be altered. The figure given by me for the present year (40,000 acres) is only approximate.

The mean pressure, temperature, &c., are deduced from the traces of the Barograph and from eye observations.

The maximum and minimum temperatures are obtained from self-registering thermometers. All the thermometers are verified, and the readings have been corrected to a standard constructed and verified at the Kew Observatory. They are exposed under a thatched shed open at the sides, and are suspended four feet above the ground.

The barometer readings are corrected to those of the standard, Newman's No. 86, formerly at the Surveyor-General's Office.

The hygrometric elements are obtained from Tables III, IV, and V of the official tables computed in the Meteorological Office, and based on Regnault's modifications of August's formula.

The directions and the movement of the wind are taken from the trace of a Beckley's anemograph.

The mouth of the rain-gauge is one foot above the ground. The rainfall reported on any day is for 24 hours preceding 8 A.M. of that day.

RESOLUTION ON THE ADMINISTRATION REPORT OF THE ORISSA PORTS FOR THE YEAR 1905-06.

No. 1735 Marine.

Government of Bengal.

MARINE DEPARTMENT.

Dated Calcutta, the 13th September 1906.

Administration Report of the Orissa Ports for the year 1905-1906.

RESOLUTION.

READ—

Letter No. 708C., dated 25th July 1906, from the Commissioner of the Orissa Division, submitting the report on the Administration of the Orissa Ports for the year 1905-06.

The receipts of the ports during the year amounted to Rs. 15,211, against Rs. 14,054 in 1904-05, showing an increase of Rs. 1,157.

2. The expenditure amounted to Rs. 19,748, as against Rs. 15,451 in the previous year, showing an increase of Rs. 4,297. The increase is specially marked in Cuttack under head "Pensions" which is due to the fact that recoveries from the Port Fund were made on account of six quarterly instalments of pension to the late Port Officer, False Point. There has been also an increase in Balasore which is due to the purchase of a steel buoy and a Wigham's lamp for Shortt's Island.

3. The expenditure during the year exceeded the receipts, but owing to the balance of Rs. 11,691 in hand, no contribution was required from Government.

4. The value of trade was Rs. 91,62,471 during the year, as against Rs. 81,04,752 in the preceding year, showing an increase of Rs. 10,57,719

5. There was a slight increase in the number, but a decrease in the tonnage of the vessels visiting the ports. In all 217 vessels with an aggregate tonnage of 156,341 tons entered during 1905-1906, as against 215 vessels with a tonnage of 158,949 tons in the previous year.

6. The passenger traffic between Orissa and Calcutta is fairly steady. Almost the whole of this traffic is with the port of Chandballi, and the numbers carried betwean Calcutta and this port and vice versâ were 41,514 and 40,827.

7. The ports were inspected by the Port Officer, Calcutta, during the year. The erosion of the Shortt's Island to seaward continues. The structure of the old lighthouse is still standing nearly erect in the sea and is now 505 feet from the nearest high water line of the island.

8. The general health of the ports was, on the whole, good. One suspected case of plague was landed from the S. S. Curlew and proved fatal. Eighteen cases of cholera were landed from the steamers at Chandballi, of which seventeen proved fatal.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

W. A. INGLIS,

Secretary.

SUMMARY OF THE METEOROLOGICAL OBSERVATIONS TAKEN IN BENGAL, AND IN EASTERN BENGAL AND ASSAM, FOR THE MONTH OF AUGUST 1906.

THE end of July had been marked by the formation of two small storms near the head of the Bay, and the last, after crossing the coast near Barisal, moved into the North-West Provinces and diffused, leaving a trough of low pressure along the base of the Himalayas. As is usually the case, this pressure distribution gave rise to heavy rain in North Bengal and North Bihar, which continued without much interruption till the middle of the month. Pressure during the same period was abnormally high in the Bay in the neighbourhood of Orissa, where the excess amounted at times to as much as one-quarter of an inch.

On the 15th of the month observations suggested that an area of low pressure was forming to the south of the Bay, and barometric readings of the 16th confirmed the existence of a meteorological feature, which is most unusual, if not unique, at this period of the year. During the course of the next week it moved very slowly in a northerly direction, and its progress northwards was definitely marked by increasing cloud and rainfall along the Coromandel and Circars coasts.

On the 23rd of the month the depression appeared to be intensifying and still moving in a direction, almost due north, not far from the coast. On the 24th it appeared probable that a small storm had formed, and observations received at 2 P.M. and 8 P.M. on the 25th shewed clearly that the centre of the depression had passed inland to the south of False Point. It continued its northerly course for the next two days inland and close to the coast, intensifyng and giving rise to a rough sea and winds of considerable violence at the head of the Bay. It then moved in the usual northerly direction through Chota Nagpur and the Central Provinces. It was a disturbance presenting very abnormal features both in its slow development, which may perhaps be said to have been initiated at the extreme south of the Bay, and in its increase in intensity after the centre had passed inland. The remainder of the month was characterized by no meteorological features of special interest.

Temperature.—As might be expected, temperature conditions were closely associated with rainfall, and in consequence the period of heavy rain in north Bengal, Bihar and Assam was characterized by temperatures markedly below normal. In Orissa, Chota Nagpur and South-West Bengal alone the average mean of the month was above the normal mean. 94°·9 was the highest temperature recorded during the month; this was reported from Gaya.

The following table gives the summary of the temperature of each of the seven Meteorological Divisions of the Provinces of Bengal and of Eastern Bengal and Assam for the month of August 1906:—

Meteorological Division.	Temperature.
	Highest observed during month.	Lowest observed during month.	Average for month.			Average mean of month above or below normal mean of month.

Summary of Rainfall.—The rainfall work of the Province has been placed in the hands of the Director of Agriculture, Bengal, and the usual data regarding the actual and normal rainfall during the month will be published by that Department. As a report on the meteorology of the month can hardly be complete without some reference to so important a feature as the rainfall distribution, a short table is attached to this report, giving the rainfall recorded during the month at the head-quarters of the various districts of the Province.

The large excess over the normal mean for the month in North Bihar, North Bengal and East Bengal, caused as indicated above by the continued existence of the trough of low pressure along the foot of the Himalayas, is shewn clearly by the figures for these two divisions:—

SUMMARY OF THE RAINFALL OBSERVATIONS TAKEN IN BENGAL FOR THE MONTH OF AUGUST 1906.

During the month of August, the rainfall was irregularly distributed over the Province. The precipitation was very heavy in the following districts of Bihar:—

Saran received an average rainfall of 16·01, (normal 11·00), Champaran 28·18 (normal 12·81), Muzaffarpur 22·29 (normal 11·00), Darbhanga 25·04 (normal 12 49), Bhagalpur 14 99 (normal 11·66), Darjeeling 48·73 (normal 24·86), Purnea 25·09 inches (normal 14·98). The departure from the normal at Saran is +5·01, at Champaran +15·37, at Muzaffarpur +11 29, at Darbhanga +12·55, at Bhagalpur +3·33, at Darjeeling +23 87 and at Purnea +10·11 inches. Expressed as a percentage, the above districts received 146, 220, 203, 200, 129, 196 and 167 per cent. respectively. Though the downpour in the districts of Burdwan, Birbhum, Nadia, Murshidabad and Jessore in South-West Bengal was not as heavy as in the above-named districts in Bihar, they also received an average above the normal, the excess varying from 2 to 5 inches. Expressed as a percentage, they received 136, 125, 130, 147 and 126 per cent., respectively.

From the abstract table it will be seen that South-West Bengal received 95 per cent., Bihar 129 per cent., Orissa 64 per cent. and Chota Nagpur 73 per cent. The total rainfall from January to the end of August 1906 was 91 per cent. of the normal in South-West Bengal; 109 per. cent. in Bihar, 84 per cent. in Orissa and 97 per cent. in Chota Nagpur.

Full details of the rainfall registered at each rainfall station in all districts of Bengal are given in the accompanying table day by day throughout the month.

The following table compares the rainfall in the four Divisions during the month of August with the normal fall, the actual being given as a percentage of the normal. The table also shows the actual falls for each of the previous months of the year, expressed in the same way, and the last column of the table shows the total rainfall of the past eight months of the year:—

The mean pressure, temperature, &c., are deduced from the traces of the Barograph and from eye observations.

The maximum and minimum temperatures are obtained from self-registering thermometers. All the thermometers are verified, and the readings have been corrected to a standard constructed and verified at the Kew Observatory. They are exposed under a thatched shed open at the sides, and are suspended four feet above the ground.

The barometer readings are corrected to those of the standard, Newman's No. 86, formerly at the Surveyor-General's Office.

The hygrometric elements are obtained from Tables III, IV, and V of the official tables computed in the Meteorological Office, and based on Regnault's modifications of August's formula.

The directions and the movement of the wind are taken from the trace of a Beckley's anemograph.

The mouth of the rain-gauge is one foot above the ground. The rainfall reported on any day is for 24 hours preceding 8 A.M. of that day.

o, overcast; d, drizzling rain; p, passing temporary showers.

REPORT ON THE ADMINISTRATION OF THE EXCISE DEPARTMENT IN THE LOWER PROVINCES, BENGAL, DURING THE YEAR 1905-06.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 423A.—T.S.R., dated 22nd September 1906.—The following extracts from the Report of the Commissioner of Excise on the administration of the Excise Department in Bengal during the year 1905-1906 and from the letter of the Board of Revenue reviewing the Report are published for general information.

H. J. McINTOSH,
Offg. Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

No. 5522B, dated Calcutta, the 24th August 1906.

From—PANDIT RAMABALLABHA MISRA, M.A., Offg. Secretary to the Board of Revenue, L. P.,

To—The Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Financial Department.

I AM directed by the Board of Revenue to submit the Report of the Commissioner of Excise, Bengal, on the administration of the Excise Department during the year 1905-1906.

Member in charge:
THE HON'BLE MR. W. C. MACPHERSON, C.S.I.

2. Administrative changes.—The important administrative changes which took place during the year were the introduction of the contract system of supplying spirits to the districts of Cuttack, Puri, Balasore and Midnapore, the transfer of the control over the cultivation and manufacture of ganja in Rajshahi to the authorities in the new province, the equalisation of the rates of duty on the different kinds of ganja, and the enhancement of the duty on imported liquors from Rs. 6 to Rs. 7 per gallon L. P. Another important change which is worthy of mention is the discontinuance of the system of colouring distillery liquor which had been in force in certain districts This system had been introduced as a tentative measure with the object of facilitating the detection of spirit illicitly manufactured or smuggled from outstills, but the consumers did not take kindly to the change, and difficulty was experienced in finding a dye quite free from objection which would be of practical use in enabling a mixture of licit and illicit spirit to be detected. The contract distillery system has worked with a fair amount of success and has been extended to the districts of Darjeeling, Khulna, Jessore and Murshidabad from the beginning of the current year.

3. Revenue.—The total receipts of the year amounted to 153 lakhs which represent an increase of 11 lakhs, or 7·9 per cent. on the figures of the previous year. This comparison is made after excluding from the total of the previous year the receipts of the 14 districts which have been transferred to the province of Eastern Bengal and Assam. It may be noted that the excise revenue of these 14 districts in 1904-1905 was only 27 lakhs, or less than one-sixth of the total excise revenue of the undivided province. Country spirit, ganja and opium contributed respectively 80¼, 27¼, and 22½ lakhs or together 85 per cent. of the total revenue of the year. There was a large increase in the revenue derived from country spirits, amounting to over 6 lakhs or 57 per cent. of the increase in the total excise revenue. Of this increase over 2 lakhs was obtained in Calcutta, nearly 2 lakhs in other distillery areas and over 2 lakhs in outstill areas. The incidence of taxation for each gallon of L P. spirit rose from Rs. 5·5 to Rs. 5·8 in distillery areas; and the average fee for each outstill license rose from Rs. 1,817 to Rs. 2,061.

4. Country spirit.—The list given in the Report of shops removed from unsuitable localities shows that deference was paid to public opinion in this matter. District Officers should also take the initiative when they find a liquor shop located on an objectionable site as it is incumbent upon them under the existing orders to ascertain periodically that the sites of existing shops are free from objection. In this connection the Board approve the orders issued limiting the practice whereby licensed vendors of country spirits in the district of Sambalpur were allowed to sell spirit at neighbouring hâts.

The Commissioner of Excise says that illicit distillation is prevalent in the district of Singhbhum as the result of the policy of not allowing outstills in the Kolhan. This matter will be separately considered by the Board.

5. Imported liquors.—The facts reported in paragraph 38 show that the holders of the railway refreshment rooms take away the custom of the ordinary retail vendors who pay much higher fees. The subject cannot be fully discussed at present, but the Commissioner of Excise should consider whether the fees of railway refreshment contractors who are allowed to sell liquor to the general public should not be raised.

The trade in cheap imported liquors continues to flourish, and during the year under review a large quantity of whisky essence was imported no doubt to be used in concocting liquors. A means has yet to be devised whereby the trade in cheap spirits and the system of bottling and sophistication connected therewith can be brought under effective control. It remains to be seen whether the recent enhancement of the duty will have the effect of checking, to any extent, the trade in plain spirits.

6. Tari.—The existing system of excise in connection with tari is not held to be satisfactory. Mr. Geake is in favour of control of tapping of trees by owners and he would limit the number of shops and encourage farms. The question of the introduction of the tree-tax system into Bengal will probably be reconsidered before long.

7. Pachwai.—It is reported that 25 pachwai shops in the old outstill area of Midnapore were closed, as the value of such shops had greatly depreciated. This step is to be regretted, as it was followed by a large increase in the number of prosecutions for the illicit manufacture of pachwai.

It is satisfactory to learn from paragraph 26 of the Report that a number of pachwai shops have since been opened in the district during the current year, as control of this intoxicant is likely to be best obtained if a system of shops in suitable localities and under proper inspection can be arranged. A clause has recently been added to the form of license for pachwai shops in which it is pointed out that the licensee is responsible for the wholesomeness of his liquor, and that the presence of any poisonous substance in the liquor will entail cancellation of the license.

The prevalence of drinking among the coolies employed in the collieries in Manbhum has been brought to the notice of the Board. The working of the experimental pachwai shops opened during the current year should be watched. It may be desirable that the managers of the mining companies should take up the licenses in the interests of the coolies.

With reference to the remarks made by the Commissioner of Excise as to the prosecution of semi-aboriginal tribes for the home-brewing of pachwai, the Board would call attention to the orders passed in the year 1901 to the effect that discretion should be exercised in prosecuting the tribes who, though not on the exempted list, are cognate in their manners and customs and are in the habit of drinking pachwai just as much as the exempted tribes. It was laid down that no prosecutions should be instituted in such cases without the sanction of the Deputy Commissioner or of some other officer selected by him. The attention of the Deputy Commissioners should be drawn to those instructions.

8. Ganja.—The increase in the receipts from ganja is due to the introduction of an improved system of taxation whereby for the differential rates on the several kinds of ganja has been substituted one uniform rate. Though there was a nominal decrease in the consumption of ganja of all kinds, the actual consumption of chur ganja was larger than in the previous year, i.e., the quantity of narcotic element in ganja consumed was larger The Commissioner of Excise suggests that arrangements might be made for the supply of ganja to retail vendors at an uniform rate throughout the year in order to save the trade from the speculative element. But as the prices which the wholesale vendor has to pay to the cultivators vary greatly in the course of a year according to the state of the stock in the Rajshahi golas, the prospect of the next crop and other factors, he will be in the position of a speculator if he is required to sell the drug at a fixed price throughout the year. At present the retail vendor who finds that there is an unwarrantable increase in the wholesale price of ganja in his district has the remedy of procuring his supplies from another district where lower prices may prevail.

9. Opium.—The increased consumption of opium in the districts most distant from the producing districts shows, in Mr Geake's opinion, that there is still an ample margin for taxation, and as regards the producing districts he is of opinion that the maximum retail price should be 4 annas a tola. Both these opinions appear to be reasonable deductions; but it is necessary to proceed cautiously in this matter as any sudden and large increase in the difference between the price in the producing districts and the price in non-producing districts may encourage smuggling of licit as well as of illicit opium.

In the year 1903 the Board reported that the rules framed by Government with the object of prohibiting the smoking of opium were working smoothly and satisfactorily, but that the suppression of smoking of madak and chandu was a matter of preventive action and could only be effected gradually. It was reported last year also that there had been a decrease in the habit of opium smoking and that the rules were working well; but it is now reported that madak and chandu smoking "clubs" are prevalent in Calcutta and that the absence of supervision or restraint of these clubs leads to abuse. If, however, madak or chandu is manufactured and sold in any such place, convictions can be obtained, and as a matter of fact such convictions are numerous in Calcutta. A place where a sale is once proved to have taken place must be marked out. Further observation is necessary before it can be decided whether there has been an increase of the practice of opium-smoking necessitating an amendment of the existing rules.

10. Excise offences—In connection with the Report for the previous year, the Board drew attention to the desirability of insistence on the co-operation of village chaukidars in the prevention of excise offences and to the claims of the Excise Department to receive the full assistance of Police Officers in detection and prevention of offences. The Board desire again to draw attention to the Commissioner's remarks on this subject. Much good might result if zamindars and managers of land in localities where excise offences are traditional were informed of the provisions of section 65 of the Bengal Excise Act, which prescribes a heavy penalty for connivance in such offences.

No. 57E., dated Calcutta, the 30th July 1906.

The net revenue shows an increase of Rs. 11,09,643, or 8·2 per cent. over the figures of the previous year, and is the highest on record.

12. The total revenue under the several heads of excisable articles was Rs. 1,53,18,436 against Rs. 1,41,98,334 in the previous year, showing an increase of Rs. 11,20,102 or 7·8 per cent The increase was common to all but two districts. The largest increase (Rs. 2,58,701) took place in Calcutta. It was also considerable in the 24-Parganas (Rs. 86,465), Gaya (Rs. 81,102), Saran (Rs. 78,104), Ranchi (Rs. 50,745), Bhagalpur (Rs. 48,985), Muzaffarpur (Rs. 46,308), Monghyr (Rs. 41,118) and Cuttack (Rs. 40,308). The decrease in two districts, viz., Darjeeling and Sambalpur, was Rs 41,045 and Rs. 8,159, respectively.

Revenue under different heads.

There was an increase under every head, except Rum, Methylated Spirits, Beer, Charas and Majum. The largest increase occurred, as in the previous year, under the head "Country spirits," being Rs. 6,37,954. Ganja comes next, with an increase of Rs 3,39,577 followed by Opium, Tari and Imported Wines, which yielded an increase of Rs. 91,722, Rs. 37,056 and Rs. 30,980, respectively. The largest decrease (Rs. 47,359) occurred under the head "Rum." The fluctuations in the revenue from the different excisable articles are discussed in detail under each head.

Taking the population of Bengal according to the lastCensus at 51 millions, the incidence of the excise revenue of the year is 4 annas 9 pies per head, against 4 annas 5 pies in the previous year; but allowing for an increase of 7 per thousand per annum as representing the average annual growth of population, the incidence of the excise revenue is 4 annas 7 pies per head.

SECTION II.—COUNTRY SPIRIT.

Sites

17. The rules regarding sites were carefully observes during the year.

Systems under which country spirit revenue was realized.

18. During the year the manufacture and sale of country spirit were carried on under two systems, viz., the fixed duty or Central Distillery System and the outstill system, except in the districts of Midnapore, Cuttack, Balasore and Puri where the Contract Supply System was in force. The revenue contributed by each system is shown on the margin.

Receipts in 1905-1906—	Rs.
Fixed duty or Central Distillery System ...	39,86,168
Outstill system ...	38,62,185
Contract supply system	1,70,006

Distillery liquor. Licenses for retail sale.

19. The total number of licenses issued was 1,009 against 994 in the previous year, showing an increase of 15. The increase was large in Saran (15), Patna (13), and Shahabad 10) where, owing to the extension of distillery areas, outstills were coverted into distillery shops. In Sambalpur 16 shops were abolished as being unnecessary In Calcutta the number of shops was reduced by 10. These shops were either situated in congested areas or on sites which were considered objectionable. In Bihar there is a great difference in area per distillery shop, even in contiguous districts. In Shahabad and Saran the area per distillery shop is 16·5 and 12·5 square miles, respectively, while in Patna and Gaya it is 6·5 and 8·5 square miles, respectively. Again, in Bettiah (Champaran) the area per distillery shop is 11·1 square miles, while in Muzaffarpur it is 9 square miles and in Darbhanga 8 5 square miles.

Distillery liquor. License-fees.

20. There was an increase in the revenue from license-fees from Rs. 12,22,648 to Rs. 14,31,768 or to the extent of Rs. 2,09,120.

Distillery liquor. Consumption and duty

21. The consumption of distillery liquor in L.P. gallons rose from 653,487 to 687,961, or by 34,474. Of the 24 districts in which the distillery system was in force, there was an increase of 42,803 gallons L.P. in 16 districts and a decrease of 8,329 gallons L.P. in the remaining 8 districts. The increase was marked in Calcutta (25,868 gallons L.P.), Saran (6,758 gallons L.P.) and the 24-Parganas (4,546 gallons L.P.).

Distillery liquor: total receipts

22. The total receipts, including license-fees, distillery fees and duty, amounted to Rs. 39,86,168 against Rs. 36,14,810 in the previous year, showing an increase of Rs. 3,71,358.

Outstills—licenses.

24. The total number of licenses issued was 1,874 against 1,965 in the previous year, showing a decease of 91.

Outstills—license-fees.

25. The revenue from license fees increased from Rs. 35,97,608 to Rs. 38,62,185, or by Rs. 2,64,577.

Contract Supply System

26. The Madras Contract system for the supply of country spirit was introduced, as an experimental measure, into Midnapore, Cuttack, Balasore and Puri, with effect from the 1st April 1905. The local manufacture of country spirit was absolutely forbidden and the contract for the wholesale supply of spirit was given to Messrs. Carew and Co. of the Rosa Distillery in the United Provinces. The contractors were forbidden to hold any retail licenses for the sale of country spirit. They were allowed the free use of all distillery and depôt buildings for the storage of liquor.

Liquor generally at 40° O. P. was brought under a general bond from the Rosa Distillery into the Midnapore warehouse and was thence transported to the several depôts. It was diluted at the warehouse and depôts under the supervision of a responsible Excise officer to the prescribed strengths, and then issued to the retail vendors on payment of cost price and duty.

The duty fixed for the liquor supplied under the Contract System was the same as under the old Distillery System, viz., Rs. 3 per gallon L. P. for the old distillery area of the Midnapore district and Rs. 2 per gallon L. P. for Cuttack, Balasore and Puri. As regards the former outstill tract of the Midnapore district, where illicit distillation is prevalent and which is inhabited by Southals and other aboriginal tribes, the duty fixed was Rs. 2 per gallon L. P. except in the case of weak liquor of 70° U.-P. on which a preferential rate of duty, viz., 5 annas a gross gallon or Re. 1·0 8 per gallon L.P. was levied.

The retail vendors were forbidden to sell liquor except at the fixed strengths noted on the margin and at the maximum prices shown below them. These strengths and prices were shown in clear figures on the sign-board of each shop, and retail vendors were supplied with standard measures for ½ and ¼ bottles so that petty consumers might not be cheated by short measure. In Cuttack, to prevent dilution by salesmen, the licensees of all the big shops were induced to put up small casks with taps in which liquor was stored and kept under lock and key.

An additional staff, consisting of one Deputy Inspector, seven Sub-Inspectors, 16 Jamadars and 32 peons was deputed to this area to check illicit distillation and smuggling of country spirit. A Deputy Collector was also specially deputed to supervise the working of the system in the Orissa districts.

All outstills situated near the border of Midnapore were removed to a distance of five miles, and, to prevent the smuggling of liquor into the Orissa districts from the Tributary States, the Chiefs of Mourbhanj and Nilgiri were induced to introduce the Contract System into the adjoining areas of their States. Liquor was supplied to these States from the Balasore depôt. As a further precaution, the limit of possession of country spirit was reduced from twelve to one reputed quart bottle except in the case of 70° U. P. in the Midnapore jungly tract, the limit of possession of which was fixed at six reputed quart bottles.

Midnapore.—In the old distillery area no difficulty was experienced with regard to the new liquor, which was, on the whole, well received Whatever slight complaints the consumers might have, they are getting accustomed to the new liquor, and it may be said that the introduction of the Contract System has been successful so far as the former distillery area is concerned. But in the former outsill area it cannot yet be said to have established itself as a success. The area consists of thanas Jhargram, Binpur, Gopiballavpur, and Garhbeta and is hilly, covered with forests and sparsely populated. The Sonthals and the semi-aboriginal tribes who inhabit this part of the country are addicted to drink. Being accustomed to mahua liquor they look with disfavour on the new spirit.

Cuttack.—The new system gave no difficulty in this district. In Orissa the people were accustomed to take spirit manufactured from rice and at a much higher strength than is known in other parts of the province.

Balasore.—There was an increase of consumption amounting to 427 gallons L. P. The increase was due to reduction in retail prices and suppression of smuggling. The new liquor was sold at the uniform strength of 10° U. P. The opium vice is notoriously prevalent in this district and weaker liquor has very little chance of success. The Collector of Balasore, Mr. S. K. Agasti, writes as follows:—

"On the whole, I should think the new liquor has succeeded beyond expectation. It does not seem to have driven people to resort to illicit practices or other forms of intoxicants."

Puri.—There was an increase of 792 gallons L. P. in consumption. The increase was due to reduction in the retail price of the liquor and to the prevalence of cholera in the town of Puri in July last. It is stated that the liquor has become popular.

27. The Contract Supply System has been extended during the current year to the districts of Darjeeling, Murshidabad, Jessore and Khulna.

Extension of the Contract Supply System.

29. The total receipts from country spirits were Rs. 80,18,359 against Rs. 73,80,405 in the previous year, showing an increase of Rs. 6,37,954.

Total revenue.

SECTION III.—COUNTRY RUM.

30. Four licenses for the sale of rum only were taken out in Calcutta against 10 in the preceding year, showing a decrease of 6 licenses. The decrease was due to the abolition of shops which were considered unnecessary.

Licenses.

31. The receipts from license fees amounted to Rs. 21,680 against Rs. 22,280 in the previous year, showing a decrease of Rs. 600.

License fees.

SECTION IV.—IMPORTED LIQUOR.

36. The total number of licenses issued for the sale of imported liquor was 507 against 515 in the previous year, showing a decrease of 8. There was an increase of 3 licenses under the head "Hotel," 2 under "Railway refreshment room" and 14 under "Steamer," while there was a decrease of 17 licenses under the head "Wholesale," 8 under "General retail" and 2 under "Dâk bungalow." The fluctuations are unimportant. In Calcutta there was a decrease of 12 wholesale licenses, due to the raising of the limit of retail sale of imported liquor from two to four gallons.

Licenses.

37. The total receipts, which are derived from license fees alone, amounted to Rs. 2,85,626 against Rs. 2,54, 646 in the previous year, showing an increase of Rs. 30,980.

Revenue.

38. The fees of the railway refreshment rooms were last revised in 1903-04. It is generally reported that the fees are low and that these licensees undersell the local imported liquor shops.

Railway refreshment rooms.

41. The sale of vibrona and other medicinal wines has been forbidden except under an ordinary license or by chemists and druggists under a special license, the fee of which has been fixed at Rs. 50 per annum.

Sale of vibrona and other medicinal wines.

SECTION VI.—TARI.

45. The total number of licenses issued was 14,149 against 13,943, and the total receipts were Rs. 11,11,794 against Rs. 10,74,738 in the previous year, there being thus an increase of 206 licenses and of Rs. 37,056 in revenue.

Statistics.

46. The number of licenses issued was 13,957 against 13,702 in the previous year, showing an increase of 255. The increase is most marked in the 24-Parganas (89) and Gaya (75). The increase in the 24-Parganas was due to the issue of a larger number of season tari licenses. The increase in Gaya is attributed to the splitting up of shops with heavy fees in order to lessen the burden of taxation on individual shops. This policy has since been abandoned. In Saran several licenses remained unsettled owing to the desertion of the pasis on account of plague.

Fermented tari.

Disputes between owners of trees and pasis exist as before in all the big tari districts with consequent detriment to the Government revenue, impoverishment of the pasis, and gradual enrichment of the owners and the mahajans. The subject was dealt with at length by me in last year's report, and a special report was submitted to the Board by Mr. Lang in this office No. 249E., dated 17th January 1906. The solution of the question requires, in the first instance, that all tapping without a pass or license be prohibited by law. In Bihar generally the enhanced rents charged by the zamindars have interfered with tari settlements. There are many owners of trees who tap their trees through hired servants and use tari for private consumption. They also settle trees on the bathi system with the licensed vendors, giving them half or one-third of the produce according to local custom. This practice stands in the way of the pasis getting sufficient trees or sufficient tari for sale. The owners also settle their trees with those pasis who offer the highest bids regardless of the situation of their shops. In this way one pasi manages to get a large number of trees while another suffers. The bagats or groves of tari trees are often settled by the zamindars on enhanced rents with pasis other than the old lessees, and the auction system thus becomes a farce, as only the nominees of the landlords can bid. Sometimes the owners of trees want the rent in kind, but no pasi will agree to the proposal. The effect is that there is no tari shop in the place and the owners, pasis and Government all lose an income, whilst the consumer either goes without or resorts to illicit practices. It is reported from Cuttack that the tappers take leases of trees beforehand and thus compel the vendors to make them partners. This affords an opportunity to the vendors and tappers to combine. The tari shops in Puri are in the hands of low class men. The practical difficulty in getting other classes of people to bid for these shops and the strong caste collusion amongst the vendors stand in the way of any competition. In Midnapore the vendors suffer greatly from the malpractices of their tappers and carriers who clandestinely sell a portion of tari on their way to licensed shops. In the district of the 24-Parganas also there is a considerable illicit sale of tari by gachuas (tappers) and others, and in many instances when the offenders are not caught in the very act of selling tari, they successfully raise the plea that the tari found in their possession was intended for the manufacture of molasses. In Purnea the tari shops in the neighbourhood of outstills were settled with the outstill holders and kept closed all the year round. This practice has been condemned.

Fresh tari.

48. Licenses for the sale of fresh tari were issued in 14 districts against 13 in the previous year, Birbhum being added to the list. The number of licenses fell from 241 to 192, and the revenue from Rs. 1,124 to Rs. 876. In Calcutta there was a decrease of 26 licenses and of Rs. 130 in revenue.

SECTION IX.—GANJA.

Transfer of the Administration of ganja cultivation.

58. On the transfer of the district of Rajshahi to the new Province of Eastern Bengal and Assam, with effect from the 16th October 1905, the administration of ganja cultivation at Naugaon now belongs to that Province.

Retail licenses.

59. The number of licenses for the retail sale of ganja was 2,009 against 2,021 in the previous year, showing a decrease of 12.

Rates of duty.

60. An uniform rate of duty of Rs. 11 per seer in Bengal and Bihar and of Rs. 9 per seer in Orissa, was fixed on all descriptions of ganja, with effect from the 23rd May 1905. The rate of duty on Khandwa ganja consumed in Sambalpur alone was Rs. 4 per seer.

Consumption and export of duty-paid ganja.

61. As in previous years, ganja was consumed in every district in the Province. The consumption was largest in Calcutta (704 maunds 24 seers). It was also considerable in Purnea (242 maunds 20 seers), Monghyr (229 maunds 11 seers), Bhagalpur (225 maunds 29 seers), the 24-Parganas (204 maunds 13 seers) and Shahabad (202 maunds 4 seers).

The most noticeable feature is a general decline in total consumption and an enormous increase in the consumption of chur ganja, the other varieties, except round, showing nominal sales. The total consumption in the year shows a net decrease of 886 maunds. But the decrease was more apparent than real as chur ganja, containing the least inert matter, was mainly consumed.

The actual consumption in Bengal amounted to 3,240 maunds, against 3,994 maunds, while 491 maunds were exported duty-paid against 623 maunds in the previous year, showing a decrease of 754 and 132 maunds, respectively. The ganja consumed in Sambalpur was imported from Khandwa in the Central Provinces, while Rajshahi ganja was consumed in all other districts. From the current year Rajshahi ganja is being supplied to the district of Sambalpur, and the duty has been fixed at Rs. 6 a seer. The amount realised from duty shows an increase of Rs. 2,79,654, which is due to the fixing of a single rate of duty on all sorts of ganja.

Different varieties of ganja

62. The fixing of an uniform rate of duty on all varieties of ganja in May 1905 was immediately followed by a fall in the consumption of round and flat ganja, retailers finding it more profitable to sell chur ganja. Flat ganja first felt the change. Round ganja, which is most affected by the consumers in the Burdwan, Presidency and Orissa Divisions, showed also a marked decline and it is expected that both varieties will soon disappear altogether from the market. A concession was granted to those wholesale vendors who had imported their supplies of round and flat ganja before the change in the rate of duty was notified, otherwise there would have been no sales of these varieties.

Total revenue.

63. The total receipts amounted to Rs. 27,28,990, against Rs. 23,89,413, in the previous year, the net increase being Rs. 3,39,577.

Wholesale prices of ganja.

64. In Calcutta the price ranged from Rs. 80 to Rs. 100 a maund, while in the 24-Parganas it was from Rs. 80 to Rs. 160 a maund and in Khulna from Rs. 120 to Rs. 200 a maund. It is desirable that the wholesale supply of ganja should be arranged for by contract with men who would agree to sell the drug to retailers at the lowest uniform rate throughout the year. The retail vendors would then exactly know what profits they can expect to make, and the trade would be saved from that speculative element which so often exercises a depressing influence on revenue. It appears, however, that the Government of India favour a system of free supply with as many wholesale vendors as possible. Theoretically, such a system is excellent, but in practice the evils of an unrestricted monopoly are not thereby prevented.

SECTION XIII.—OPIUM.

Licenses for retail sale.

84. The total number of licenses issued for the retail vend of opium was 1,304 against 1,326 in the previous year, showing a decrease of 22.

License-fees.

87. The revenue from license-fees rose from Rs. 5,74,288 to Rs. 5,95,992, or by Rs. 21,704.

Consumption and duty.

88. The quantity of opium sold was 2,038 maunds 15 seers against 1,958 maunds 34 seers in the previous year, showing an increase of 79 maunds 21 seers. The increase was large in Balasore (16 maunds 29 seers), Cuttack (14 maunds 1 seer), Midnapore (9 maunds 17 seers), the 24-Parganas (9 maunds 7 seers) and Calcutta (8 maunds 22 seers). The increased consumption in those districts most distant from the producing districts shows that there is still an ample margin for taxation. Illicit opium does not travel so far, and the competition of licit opium from districts where it is less heavily taxed gives no reason for apprehension. Within the Province licit opium can usually be traced and adequate measures adopted to prevent its diverging from the prescribed course. The increase in Balasore is attributed to the improved condition of the consumers.

The increase in Cuttack was due to competition among vendors and consequent reduction in retail prices. In Midnapore it was due to good crops. The increase in the 24-Parganas was due partly to the increased number of mill-hands and their prosperous condition, but chiefly, I think, to increased smuggling from the district. The Superintendent of Excise Revenue, Calcutta, Mr. Baboneau, gives the following explanation of increase in his district:—

"There has been an increase of 8 maunds 22 seers in the consumption of opium, and this increase is over and above the increase of 9 maunds 31 seers of the previous year. During the three years preceding that period, however, the consumption fell off to the extent of 125 maunds attributed to the withdrawal of the restrictions imposed upon the supply of opium to the retail shops in Chittagong, which enable the opium smugglers of Burma to shift their operations from Calcutta to a nearer place, viz., Chittagong. With the re-imposition of the restriction during the last two years the consumption in Calcutta has again begun to rise, but the increase during these two years is inconsiderable, compared with the decrease which preceded it. The result points to the inference that either the smugglers have found fresh fields for their operations or a considerable portion of the smugglers' demands is now met by opium smuggled into Calcutta from up-country, they being no longer required to make large purchases from the Calcutta shops. The latter inference is supported by the nature of the cases of opium smuggling detected during the last two years in Calcutta. In the majority of these cases the opium seized had been smuggled into the town from Benares and other up-country districts for transport to Chittagong and the Burma ports. The cases disclose the existence of organised illicit traffic in this drug."

Total receipts.

89. The total receipts amounted to Rs. 22,43,052 against Rs. 21,51,330 in the previous year, showing an increase of Rs. 91,722. Of this increase, a sum of Rs. 21,704 was contributed by license-fees and Rs. 70,018 by duty.

Madak and chandu

90. Mr. Baboneau reports upon the prevalence of madak and chandu-smoking clubs in Calcutta, which are practically the former "dens" under a more polite designation. The withdrawal of all license-fees upon these clubs has put a premium upon the increased consumption of the drugs. The revision of rule 4 (1) by which private possession of the drug by a congregation of smokers is limited to 5 tolas has done some good, but the difficulty of proving that these institutions are mere "dens" and not properly conducted clubs is great. The absence of any supervision or restraint upon these private clubs has rendered it possible for most of the contraband opium coming into Calcutta to find its way therein and has rendered detection of such illicit traffic more difficult and rare. This naturally affects the licit consumption, and is an evil which demands the utmost consideration. The vice can also now be indulged in with greater secrecy and without fear of surprise visits from Excise or Police officers. The difficulties of proving that these institutions are mere "dens" and not clubs are found in practice to be well nigh insuperable. In a single locality of the Machooabazar section of the town it is known that no less than some thirty of these dens exist. Quite recently Mr. Eagleton made a seizure of 12 tolas prepared chandu, and five seers of opium in the process of manufacture. When brought before the Superintendent, the Chinaman proprietor smilingly said it was a "club." The case is now before the Magistrate and is being defended by a Barrister.

SECTION XIV.—COCAINE.

Licenses and revenue.

95. Licenses for the sale of cocaine are issued sparingly according to the requirements of each district. They are granted only to approved druggists and chemists at an annual fee of Re. 1. The total number of licenses issued was 211 against 192 in the previous year, and the receipts from license-fees amounted to Rs. 216 against Rs. 212.

Abuses.

96. The number of persons convicted of illicit sale and possession of cocaine was 214, viz., 189 in Calcutta, 8 in the 24-Parganas, 7 in Hooghly, 4 in each of the districts of Monghyr and Bhagalpur, and 2 in Purnea. In Calcutta the energy of the detective staff was mainly directed towards attacking the principal sources of supply. Detection of sale of cocaine in purias, or small packets, has become more difficult, as the petty illicit dealers never allow their stock to exceed the legal limit of private possession, viz., 60 grains, and the sales are effected by one person, while the price is received by another sitting at a distance.

Most of the shops for the illicit sale of cocaine, however, ceased to exist owing to the supply of the drug having run short in consequence of some large seizures. It is stated that the illicit price of cocaine has risen so high that the petty dealers are obliged to cheat their customers by mixing soda or other white substances with cocaine. In the 24-Parganas the cocaine habit is spreading among the mill-hands in the Barrackpore subdivision. Formerly it was confined to that portion of the district immediately adjoining Calcutta. Cocaine is smuggled from French Chandernagore into Hooghly and Calcutta. It is reported from Saran and Monghyr that cocaine is used as an intoxicant in houses of ill-fame. In Muzaffarpur detection has been very difficult, as the drug is mostly used by wealthy and influential men. Eucaine and cocaine tabloids are reported to be used freely in this district. The effect of eucaine is reported to be similar to that of cocaine. Cocaine is smuggled in parcels by rail to stations adjoining Calcutta and direct through the post. Importation through the Post Office in parcels and letters can only be checked by application of the procedure prescribed in sections 24 and 25 of the Indian Post Office Act, 1898. The Presidency Post Master has no objection to action being taken under section 24 of the Act, provided that cocaine be declared to be contraband by the Government of India. In view of these facts, it has been suggested that a notification may be published under section 19 of the Sea Customs Act, VII of 1878, prohibiting the importation by land or sea of cocaine into British India or any part thereof, except by licensed dealers and under a pass granted by the local Excise authorities.

SECTION XV.—OFFENCES AGAINST THE EXCISE AND OPIUM LAWS.

Arrests and convictions.

97. During the year under review the number of persons arrested for offences against the Excise and Opium laws was 3,230 against 3,018 in the previous year. The increase was most marked in Midnapore (193), Singhbhum (152) and the Sonthal Parganas (119), while Calcutta showed a decrease of 173.

Work of Excise and Police officers.

98. The number of persons arrested by Excise officers increased from 2,088 to 2,345 in the year under report, while the number arrested by other officers, decreased from 930 to 885. The Excise officers obtained convictions in 88·9 per cent. and Police officers in 83·4 per cent. of the cases sent up by them. Police officers can, if they like, detect important cases, as they have the chaukidars under their control who can give the earliest information about excise illegalities committed by villagers, but they apparently do not get much credit in their own department for such detection. If the Police and chaukidars would only do their duty, both prevention and detection of excise cases would be an easy matter. But chaukidars as a rule connive at such offence instead of co-operating with the Excise officers in detection. Some improvement might be secured by the promulgation of a rule requiring the dismissal of any chaukidar in whose village habitual illicit distillation or illicit sale might be discovered.

The estimated outturns of jute and bhadoi crops are 82 and 75 per cent. respectively. Much distress due to the late floods still continues in Darbhanga and Saran, where thousands of persons are receiving gratuitous relief. Slight distress is also reported from Jessore. Fodder is insufficient in parts of Muzaffarpur and Darbhanga. Cattle-disease has been reported from eleven districts. Water-supply is sufficient. The price of common rice has risen in six and fallen in thirteen districts.

The mean pressure, temperature, &c., are deduced from the traces of the Barograph and from eye observations.

The maximum and minimum temperatures are obtained from self-registering thermometers. All the thermometers are verified, and the readings have been corrected to a standard constructed and verified at the Kew Observatory. They are exposed under a thatched shed open at the sides, and are suspended four feet above the ground.

The barometer readings are corrected to those of the standard, Newman's No. 86, formerly at the Surveyor-General's Office.

The hygrometric elements are obtained from Tables III, IV, and V of the official tables computed in the Meteorological Office, and based on Regnault's modifications of August's formula.

The directions and the movement of the wind are taken from the trace of a Beckley's anemograph.

The mouth of the rain-gauge is one foot above the ground. The rainfall reported on any day is for 24 hours preceding 8 A.M. of that day.

o, overcast; t, thunder; ⌓, dew; g, gloomy; p, passing temporary showers.
